Two Oil Paintings Stolen; Clothing Store Burglarized

$6,000 Worth Of Women's Apparel Gone

Burglars last night smashed a front door window of Couture Fashions shop in Kentfield to strip racks of $6,000 worth of "better quality" women's apparel.

Sheriff's Deputy W. R. Bradford said the intruders apparently departed via rear door of the store, 943 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, but no truck or auto tracks were found.

The shop's proprietor since last October, Elizabeth Bondy, confirmed the approximate value of stolen merchandise, but declined to identify the items except to say many dresses were included.

Deputy Bradford said the shop was closed over Veterans Day yesterday, but apparently the break-in did not occur until last night or the broken window would have attracted attention earlier.

He said intruders apparently reached through the broken pane to unlatch the door, then looted the racks and loaded the clothing out the rear door, which was left open.

Six boxes of clothing, valued at about $120 total, were left outside the rear door in the rain, the officer added.

The burglary was discovered at 8:55 a.m. today by George E. Fossey, building owner who has his office next door.

MARIN LEAGUE GAME STILL IS PLANNED

Undefeated football teams of Sir Francis Drake and Terra Linda high schools are still due to clash at 8 p.m. Saturday at the College of Marin field in Kentfield despite soggy conditions.

Peter Limm, head coach from Terra Linda, said a crew would attempt to pump storm water from the field now that the rain has stopped. The decision to go ahead with the game was made this morning when Limm and Robert Franceschini, Drake's head coach, met at the field.

Limm said that it still may be necessary to call off the game if the pumping project does not succeed in drying the field. The game will decide the Marin Athletic League championship.

Man, Woman Arrested For Art Theft

Two small oil paintings, part of the Musee D'Art International exhibit at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael, were stolen last night but quickly recovered by Corte Madera police who were alerted by a radio broadcast by San Rafael police.

The two art pieces were valued at $420.

Gregory John Hensley, 36, a San Francisco bartender, and Eunice Claudette Zigich, 24, of 903 Greenfield Road, Mill Valley, were booked in county jail on suspicion of grand theft.

Miss Zigich, who works as hair stylist in San Rafael, was bailed out for $550. Hensley was still in jail this morning. They were to be arraigned in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

Inspector Thomas Cheetham of San Rafael police, said Hensley and Miss Zigich gave this account of what happened:

They had been drinking at Dominic's and noticed the paintings on the wall. They thought it would be fun to take a couple for souvenirs. That was about 10:20 last night.

Traute Terry Plantz of 30 El Portal, Sausalito, manager of the art gallery at the restaurant, happened to look up from her desk and noticed one of the paintings partially removed from its fixture on the wall. She also saw a man going out the doorway. Mrs. Plantz then noticed two paintings were missing.

Just about that time, Sgt. Carl Selby of San Rafael police spotted a car without lights leaving Dominic's parking lot. He radioed the description of the car.

Corte Madera police stopped the car at the Corte Madera interchange and found the two paintings under the rear seat.

Mrs. Patricia Zimmerman, director at the art gallery, described the paintings as the work of a "well known French classic painter, Jacques Derrey." One is entitled "Bain de Soleil" (sun bath), and the other, "Figure dans Un Interieus" (figure in the interior). They were purchased in France by Herbert A. Crocker and William H. McDevitt, who own the gallery.

Strawberry Pro-Tiburon Faction Busy

Strawberry — called "the fat land in the middle" in the current power play between Mill Valley, Alto and Tiburon—may go with Tiburon.

Petitions are being circulated by some members of the "Strawberry Jam Committee" to request the City of Tiburon for permission to start annexation proceedings.

The move is in opposition to Alto's proposal to incorporate Strawberry and adjacent communities in a proposed City of Alto. Alto's proposal was made to try to block the proposed 137-acre annexation by the City of Mill Valley of marshland and the Alto Strip.

Dr. Robert C. Cogswell of 291 East Strawberry Drive, a member of the jam committee, said petitions will be presented "at an early date" to the City of Tiburon and the Marin County

Hit-Run Trial Move Sought By Defense

A motion to move the felony hit-run trial of John P. Lee, 34, outside Marin County was taken under advisement until Tuesday at 10 a.m. by Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. of Marin Superior Court today.

That is the same time set for start of the trial, which results from an accident July 9 in which a 12-year-old Greenbrae boy was seriously injured.

Attorney Harold B. Hyde, associated with attorney Berwyn A. Rice in Lee's defense, moved for the change of venue, contending a fair trial could not be obtained in Marin County because of "inflammatory" newspaper publicity following the accident.

Lee was not present in court. He is free on $2,200 bail and was reported to be in New York. He was residing at 501 Oak Avenue, San Anselmo, at the time of the accident.

He is charged in the injury of bicyclist Robert G. Miller, 30 Corte Loyola, on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at La Cuesta Drive.

Hyde said public opinion against Lee because of newspaper accounts of the incident and resulting court coverage was so inflamed it would be impossible to receive a fair and impartial trial in Marin County.

"The fact is," said Hyde, "newspapers have already tried and convicted this man."

In continuing action on the motion, Judge Sims said he had no way to determine if jury panelists have been affected by newspaper publicity until they are questioned as potential jurists Tuesday.

Flood Leaves 7,000 Square Miles Of Vietnam Ravaged

DA NANG, South Vietnam (AP) — Seven thousand square miles of South Vietnam have been swept bare and isolated from the rest of the nation in the wake of the most disastrous floods here in more than 60 years.

Relief officials estimated today that 5,000 or more persons have died in the floods of the past three days, although accurate figures probably never will be available.

The nation's only railroad line and only arterial road in the area were destroyed over a distance of about 200 miles, and U.S. officials estimated it would take years to rebuild these lifelines to their former capacity.

Headquarters of the Vietnamese army's beleaguered Second Division on an island opposite the City of Da Nang was cut off as the result of a big steel bridge washout. Engineers say it will take at least six months to restore the bridge.

The constantly pounding rain and Communist antiaircraft fire hampered efforts to assist the thousands caught in the floods.

First Crab Catch Is Small One

Crab fisherman Bernard Armstrong brought the first crab catch of the season into Sausalito yesterday with a small haul of 825 pounds on his boat, Cap Armstrong.

Five boats left Sausalito docks today and it was predicted there will be crabs available in Marin for the weekend.

S. J. Sturiale of Sturiale Fish Co. said Armstrong, who lives in Sausalito, caught 25 per cent of what he caught the first day last year.

Marincello Plans For City Of 25,000 Persons Unveiled

Project Will Take 15 Years

Marincello, a planned community to be constructed over a 15-year period on cattle land between Sausalito and Fort Cronkhite, was "unveiled" today.

Frouge Corp., development firm, will seek plan approval Dec. 7 by the Marin County Planning Commission and hopes to turn ground as soon as possible. The corporation showed features in a room-size model at its Sausalito office at 3030 Bridgeway.

The city will be built in a natural bowl on 2,138 acres. One day it is to contain from 20,000 to 25,000 inhabitants. It is to have high-rise apartments not to exceed 16 stories, single-family homes, garden and town houses, and a resort hotel.

40-ACRE PARK

There will be a 40-acre park. Water is to be backed up in a series of stepped-up lagoons leading from Rodeo Lagoon to terminate in a large square surrounded by churches called Brotherhood Plaza. Lagoons are to provide both scenic and recreational activities.

Marincello (the name is from an Italian word meaning "where the mountains meet the sea") will be zoned for industrial and commercial as well as residential development, Frouge said. The master plan shows 198 acres of retail zoning, 466 acres of general commercial, 249 acres of light industrial, 296 acres of low-density, 369 of medium density and 459 of high density zoning.

Frouge Corp. plans to develop 60 per cent of the land and sell the remainder to other developers, he said.

The scale model is on display for all Marin residents and interested people to view, said Thomas Frouge, board chairman of Frouge Corp.

CLUSTER PRINCIPLE

"Our plan," he said, "is to build Marincello on the cluster principle, which has been endorsed by the American Conservation Assn. as a 'major new trend in housing' and an idea which is on the verge of becoming the dominant pattern of new residential development.

"Our goal is to make Marincello the most beautiful planned community in the world."

Reid and Tarics, San Francisco architect-engineer firm, worked with San Francisco architects Okamoto and Liskam in developing the master plan. John Lyon Reid, architect, lives in San Francisco and Alexander Tarics, structural engineer, in Belvedere.

The model shows access to Marincello from Highway 101 at Rodeo and Spencer avenues, and access to Mill Valley and the north through Tennessee Valley.

Frouge stressed that the program is a 15-year one, saying rate of occupancy is expected to be slow at first but climb rapidly in the next 10 years.

He said regional planners agree there will either be a new bridge between Marin and San Francisco or a new level on the Golden Gate Bridge by the time there is "an appreciable Marincello population."

"Because of the community planning, we expect many residents will both live and work in Marincello, some will live in San Francisco and work at Marincello or live in Marincello and work in other areas of Marin, thus reversing commuter traffic," Frouge said.

The city is based on a concept of urban decentralization. Its shopping and office complex will

Reds Destroy Marinite's Helicopter

"I just hope this wakes up the American people so that they either pull us out of Vietnam or let us destroy the communists," S/Sgt James T. Hines Jr. has written in a letter to his mother in Mill Valley.

Hines, who has been in Vietnam as a senior helicopter crew chief since August, lost his helicopter in a Viet Cong attack early this month. Four Americans and five Vietnamese were killed and 21 American B-57 bombers damaged or destroyed at the Bien Hoa Air Base where Hines is stationed, 18 miles from Saigon.

"Just to let you know that all is well with me," Hines wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Hines Sr. of 2 Oak Street.

"I guess by now you must have heard that we were shelled by communist Viet Cong mortars . . . boy, Mom, you just don't know how helpless you feel when the mortars start falling!

"You can't hear them coming in and you just don't know where to go."

Mrs. Hines, who said she has not seen her son for five years, said she sent him a box for his birthday Sept. 31. It arrived 37 days late.

Hines, 31, is married, his wife, Kathryn living in southern California.

Showers Taper Off, Marin Sun Returns

Sunshine, bright and warm, returned to Marin today after five days of almost steady rainfall that left over five inches in some areas and started creeks and streams gurgling with muddy water.

The rain, a hard downpour at times, caused mudslides and tree falls Monday and Tuesday. But yesterday and last night, it calmed to gentle showers in most areas.

The Weather Bureau predicted partly cloudy weather tonight with fair skies tomorrow. West to northwest winds from 15 to 25 miles an hour are expected as the storm moves away.

The storm brought the first run-off of the season in county creeks. A spokesman for Marin Municipal Water District reported, however, that increase in levels in district reservoirs was very slight.

Biggest rainfall total was 5.33 inches measured at Kent Lake this morning. Most rain in the 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. today was 1.5 reported at Chevy Chase in Larkspur.

San Rafael had .47 of an inch since noon yesterday. This brought a storm total of 3.6 and hiked the season total to 8.63. San Rafael had 5.27 at this time last year. Seasonal average for Nov. 12 is 3.67.

In Southern Marin the wind came up hard just before midnight. In Sausalito a cupboard full of dishes crashed down in a gust in the maintenance man's apartment at Diesel Engineering and Maintenance at 1702 Bridgeway.

But the wind was not so strong nor so prolonged as earlier in the week when falling limbs and trees brought power outages and did considerable damage to homes and parked autos.

The storm caused the death of an Alameda duck hunter early yesterday when waves swamped his small skiff near Bay Farm Island off the Alameda shore. Paul L. Williams, 20, a gas station attendant, drowned before he could reach the shore.

Rainfall reported in Marin as of 8 a.m. today was:

France Plans Atom Buildup

PARIS (AP)—France disclosed today plans to build up the French nuclear force for the next five years, including supersonic bombers, a Polaris-type submarine and tactical atomic weapons for the army.

The disclosure was made in a report to Parliament that estimated the cost over the period at about 11 billion dollars.

The printed report said that in principle France would combine forces with its allies, but also reaffirmed its determination never to allow the country's independence to be compromised.

U.S. Vietnam War Dead Now Number 319

WASHINGTON (UPI)—One American was killed and 12 wounded in action against the Communist Viet Cong in South Vietnam during the week ending Nov. 9, the Defense Department reported today.

It brought total U.S. casualties in the Southeast Asia war to 319 dead and 1,315 wounded since Jan. 1, 1961. Nine men are missing.

The weekly toll registered a sharp drop from the previous week when five Americans were killed and 83 wounded, most of them in the Communist mortar attack Nov. 1 on the Bien Hoa Airfield. Four men were killed and 72 wounded in that attack.

Deaths in action against the Viet Cong now total 221, including 141 in aircraft incidents and 80 in ground fighting. Non-combat deaths totaled 98, including 39 men who died in aircraft accidents.

Army Says Grenade Not American Made

HANAU, Germany (UPI) — The explosive device which injured 46 German children in a schoolyard was not of American manufacture and probably was German-made, the U.S. Army said today.

Eleven-year-old Rudolf Popeich, who is described as mentally retarded by his father, found the device yesterday in a construction ditch, en route to school. It went off as about 450 children had mustered in the school yard after a recess.

An Army spokesman said U.S. ordnance experts had studied fragments of the device and knew of no U.S. grenade, mine or shell which resembled it. The ordnance men believe it was of German make, the spokesman said.

However, two German girls who saw the device said it was marked "U.S. Army." A U.S. Army barracks is located near the school, and German press reports had claimed the weapon was U.S.-made.

Rudolf's classmates said he had boasted of finding the device and was playing with it when it went off amidst a curious crowd of children.

Eleven children were injured seriously. Rudolf lost his left arm and left eye. One girl lost a hand, another's leg was mangled, and a third girl may lose her sight, according to doctors.

Water Projects Conceived But Get No Money

PALM SPRINGS (AP) — Many small water reclamation projects are conceived but never born because availability of federal funds to finance their growth is not assured, reports a committee of the National Reclamation Assn.

Under existing legislation, 100 million dollars reportedly was made available in 1957 for loans to see such projects through their early years.

The association's small projects committee reported yesterday to the NRA's national convention that less than 25 million dollars of that sum remained uncommitted when the 88th Congress adjourned this fall.

"The need for legislation to increase the authorization is urgent," the committee said.

Peking Seems To Be Foiling Kremlin Plans

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Red China's team in Moscow seems to have the new Soviet regime over a barrel in the struggle over what direction world communism will take.

Premier Chou En-Lai and his delegation forced a concession from the Kremlin in return for extending the current chilly truce in the dispute. From its strong bargaining position, Red China appears to have forced the Kremlin to back away from its plans for a December meeting of international Communist leaders to prepare for a world meeting.

Instead, there are to be Soviet-Chinese talks in Peking early next year. But in the long run, this concession means little.

TEMPORARY TRUCE

The talks this week accomplished little beyond temporarily halting the barrage and counterbarrage of villification which flew between Moscow and Peking in Nikita Khrushchev's time. This cease-fire now may last into 1965, or at least keep the battle in a minor key.

But up to now the new Soviet leadership under Leonid I. Brezhnev as Communist party first secretary and Alexi N. Kosygin as premier seems to have failed in an important respect to meet the Chinese price for anything approaching a real peace.

While talks went on in Moscow, Peking's propaganda laid down peace conditions in no uncertain terms. The conditions are harsh and probably never can be met by the Russians.

The Peking People's Daily, the voice of the Chinese party, warned that the Soviet Union, if it wanted to restore unity, would have to support violent revolution everywhere, regardless of risk.

CHINESE VIEWS

The Communist world, it said, is "duty bound to support actively the revolutionary struggle of all oppressed people and nations."

The Chinese make these points:

The Soviet Union must refrain from dictating to other parties. The People's Daily said unity depends upon disappearance of "great nation chauvinism."

Moscow must treat Peking as equal.

Above all, Moscow must turn more aggressive in the international arena, must agree that the United States is the main enemy, and must agreed to zero in on the Americans.

Such a policy would frighten not only the Soviet public, but all Europe—including Europe's Communists, because a harsh policy would once again unite the Western world as it did when Stalin was at his most threatening.

LBJ Readies 2 Billion Cut On Federal Excise Taxes

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson has decided to recommend a 1965 excise tax cut that may approach 2 billion dollars. It would stretch the spending money of almost every citizen in the land.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, an overnight guest at the LBJ Ranch near here, reported late Wednesday that Johnson had just agreed to a basic decision, first of all, to abolish all 550 million dollars of excise taxes added to the retail price of cosmetics and toilet goods, jewelry, furs, luggage and pocketbooks.

These war-born taxes boost purchase prices by 10 per cent.

In addition, Dillon told a news conference, Johnson will ask Congress in January to repeal or reduce still other excise taxes that would add "a good bit more" to the total size of the proposed tax cut.

Dillon said the maximum possible tax saving would be 4 billion dollars. And he emphasized that such a figure was sure to prove too high.

At another point, he spoke of possible action on 65 to 70 different excise levies that net Uncle Sam nearly 2 billion dollars a year.

Most experts believed the total tax cut to be recommended by Johnson—and this decision still was up in the air—would amount to somewhere between 1 billion and 2 billion dollars.

Dillon said a final presidential decision would be delayed pending a last-minute reading of the economic outlook and possible inflationary influences.

Dillon said he thought "this would be a rather easy bill to pass" in Congress and he expected the proposed tax cuts to take effect next July 1.

Dillon, who talked to newsmen at the White House press center in Austin, 65 miles east of here, said repeal of all excises on retail sales—Johnson "agreed that was the minimum of what we should do"—would save shopkeepers a lot of bookkeeping.

Dillon wouldn't commit the administration on specific manufacturing excises — collected from manufacturers and passed on to customers—that might be repealed or cut.

Appeal Made For Renewal Funds

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Art S. Leitch, president of California Real Estate Assn. says he has asked President Lyndon B. Johnson to redirect federal urban renewal funds to California.

Leitch said the suspension of federal funds by Federal Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver was based "on mistaken grounds that passage of Proposition 14 disqualifies our state."

The state constitutional amendment, overwhelmingly approved by California voters Nov. 3, nullifies anti-discrimination laws on housing.

Weaver, in ordering a review of all California urban renewal projects, has said his agency is required to exact non-discrimination pledges from recipients of federal funds. Weaver said Proposition 14 may prohibit community redevelopment agencies in California from giving such a pledge.

Leitch, however, said he telegraphed the president yesterday that attorneys carefully prepared the amendment so it would neither conflict with the U.S. Constitution nor interfere with federal urban renewal requirements.

Leitch sent the telegram while attending a meeting here of the National Assn. of Real Estate Boards.

Crash Caused By Heavy Load

WASHINGTON (AP) — A heavy load — 400 gallons of water — made a fire control plane so sluggish on takeoff at Willcox, Ariz., last May 19 that it crashed, killing its pilot, the Civil Aeronautics Board said today.

The pilot, Dexter Boothe Jr., 37, of Sonora, Calif., had planned to make a practice forest-fire fighting water drop.

The probable cause of the accident was the pilot's failure "to obtain adequate air speed for take off under the existing conditions," the CAB said.

Four Fail To Pay

Amadeo Lipuri of La Casa Italian Restaurant, 903 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, told police four young men consumed $12.79 worth of food and drink there, Tuesday night, then left without paying.

Drought Still Holds East Of Rockies

CHICAGO (AP) — Damages mounted in many segments of the nation's economy today as a long spell of unseasonably warm, dry weather showed no signs of a general, immediate break across wide areas from the Rockies to New England.

The severe drought, termed by Weather Bureau officials as the worst in history in parts of the East and Midwest, has dealt crippling blows to farmers and dairymen.

Heavy, soaking rains are needed desperately by farmers and to halt the mounting outbreak of forest fires.

Most of the Far West was out of the dry belt, and having storms.

Snow also fell in mountain sections of Colorado and New Mexico but no heavy rains were reported in Colorado where the state's 100-million-dollar winter wheat crop is threatened.

Hundreds of fires have burned thousands of acres in the Midwest and East. Some forest lands have been closed to the public.

Water supplies dwindled to a trickle in many areas.

TEEN-AGE MISS

Beauty Contestants Reveal Their Likes

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Today's teen-age girls love patterned stockings, inside-out sweat shirts and tiny heels, men with humor and consideration, and a career until they marry at age 23.

An Associated Press survey of the 52 Miss Teen-Age America candidates here for the fourth pageant also found that all but eight work for charity causes or hold down part-time jobs.

They go to the extremes in clothes; but simplicity is the byword whether it is a sporty A-line dress, Madras shift, or dressy crepe in the high-waisted style made popular by the movie "Tom Jones."

The current fad in Washington, D.C., is "cut-off jeans and sweat shirts worn inside out with the sleeves cut off," says Ellen Rein. Other fads are boots, knee socks and shoulder bags.

In case parents hadn't noticed, much of today's primping is over the flip hairdo, worn by 35 of the girls. Make-up now includes mascara and eyeliner as standard equipment along with powder, eyebrow pencil and pale lipsticks.

Only four of the 52 go steady and the others don't much want to. Neither do they aspire to be teen-age brides.

They're looking for a dream of a husband who first of all has a sense of humor. He also must be understanding, respectful, prompt, neat, intelligent, sincere, good looking, a safe driver, have high morals and a good reputation—and be fun, to boot.

Spiders are great killers of insects. There is one case on record of a female black widow spider who destroyed 250 house flies, two crickets and one other spider during her lifetime.

Rusk Warns Off Chinese Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk forecasts trouble ahead in Southeast Asia unless Red China decides to leave its neighbors alone.

"We have made it very clear we are not going to pull away and leave Southeast Asia to be overrun," Rusk said yesterday in an interview recorded for a television program "The United States and the Two Chinas."

Rusk disclosed no basic changes in U.S. policy towards China. He said it would be up to the Communist Chinese to change their policies if tensions are to ease.

U.S. Moves To Aid Malaysia In Fight

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP)—The United States took its first, tentative step today toward helping Malaysia fight off an Indonesian military threat as a U.S. defense team opened talks on possible arms aid to this country.

The eight-man team, which arrived yesterday, held its first meeting with Malaysian defense officials to determine where and how American assistance might fit into a largely British-oriented armed forces program.

Ascherman Report Submitted To Judge

The hearing officer's report to the "Marin County Superior Court on the case of Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman was mailed to Judge Richard M. Sims yesterday, the Marin Hospital District board learned last night.

The board met to discuss final specifications for an employee retirement plan, but held a 15-minute closed session with Harold F. Riede, the district's attorney, on the Ascherman matter.

Board President Ernest W. Kettenhofen said the board did not see a copy of the report, or of an earlier draft which had been submitted to attorneys on both sides, but members were not displeased after hearing a recapitulation from Riede.

Ascherman is seeking admission to the hospital staff, and has appealed a board ruling denying it. The district has filed a bill of particulars with 14 charges against the doctor, but since then the hearing has been stymied because witnesses have refused to testify.

Riede has contended that the doctors will testify if subpoenaed, but the district has no power to issue subpoenas.

Both sides in the case are due in court Monday, to appear before Sims for a decision on the next step in the case.

Harry Gonick, Ascherman's attorney, said he was satisfied with the report by hearing officer John R. McDonough, after seeing a preliminary draft. He said the 23-page document claims that some of the hospital district's charges refer to acts so long ago and so unimportant that they would not be sufficient to bar the surgeon, even if true.

But Kettenhofen said the district's case contends also that while no single charge may be sufficient, the entire group, if proved, would show a pattern.

Gonick said McDonough's report also notes that all the charges against Ascherman referred to events which were supposed to have taken place in 1959 through 1961, and that Ascherman has never been charged with malpractice.

In the board meeting, the board approved the specifications for the retirement program, as recommended earlier, with a proviso that it not include present employees unless 70 per cent join, but that it be mandatory for new employees.

The board set a special meeting Dec. 9, and served notice that no quorum is expected at the regular meeting Nov. 24. Dr. Gwendolyn M. Campion and Hadden W. Roth, elected to the board Nov. 3, sat in on the meeting, including the closed session, although they will not be sworn into office until January to clear the roadway in the Donner Summit area.

California and Nevada Highway Patrol officials said all major roads over the Sierra were open at 6 a.m. this morning. Chains were required over all roads.

The Mt. Rose Highway in Nevada, state route 27, had been closed earlier this morning.

Officials of both patrols warned that conditions in the Sierra could force several of the roads to be closed without warning at any time.

In most of the Tahoe area snows fell to a depth of 18 inches with loose snow drifting to four feet. Visibility was limited and winds were strong, but the snowfall was expected to become lighter and the winds weaker by the weekend.

The storm has caused the earliest opening of the ski season in nearly 25 years in some areas. Many of the resorts expected a heavy turnout for the first weekend for skiing.

The Weather Bureau forecast that the heavy snow and gale winds would continue in the mountain regions through the morning and both would subside with only occasional snowfall today and tomorrow.

The Weather Bureau said the storm was not so severe as had been expected. A low pressure system moving across Oregon was expected to bring gale winds to the California coastal areas, but by early morning the forecast was revised and gale warnings changed to small craft warnings for most of the northern coast.

Winds were expected to become west-northwesterly with top velocity about 40 miles an hour. Rains were expected to continue in coastal areas and snow was expected above the 3,000 foot mark through Sunday.

At Badger Pass, in Yosemite National Park, 39 inches of fresh snow had fallen. Ski resorts at Badger, Squaw Valley and Dodge Ridge planned weekend openings.

Temperatures in the area were in the low to middle 20s at night and in the middle 40s during the day.

Local Agency Formation Commission.

The committee derives its name from the fact that "we feel we're in a jam," said Cogswell. "For one thing," he added, "we are trying to maintain some open water area for Strawberry and the last such area is being planned to be built upon by Harbor Cove Properties Corp."

Cogswell said there is danger that Strawberry Point Elementary School may lose its open waterfront area. "This is the only school in the county if not the Bay Area with actual water access. We feel the school has a God-given opportunity to go to town on important things such as boating, fishing and recreation," he declared.

A proposal has been made by Harbor Cove properties to exchange a piece of land with the Mill Valley School District, both parcels being at the south end of the school property. The private property has been filled and the school property is partially marshland. The exchange would straighten out a jog in the property line, said Leo B. Edson, assistant superintendent of Mill Valley schools.

"We feel we have a physical identity with Tiburon," said Cogswell. "We don't feel Alto could possibly become a corporate entity."

"We're the fat land in the middle," said William H. McDonough of Strawberry, who recently won a seat on the Strawberry Recreation Commission. "They don't care so much about us. They want the brand new shopping center with 80 stores. I would like a little time to get as much self-determination as possible. When I campaigned door to door, they all asked me, 'What is going on?' "

The Tiburon City Council stated Sept. 28 that its "sphere of interest and potential future boundary" includes the Tiburon Peninsula east of Highway 101 except for the portion of Corte Madera which crosses the highway. The council announced this on a query from the City of Mill Valley in relation to its annexation proposal.

The Tiburon City Council, after receiving petitions from the jam committee, must give its approval before a formal petition to annex may be circulated. Such resolution would block any other annexation or incorporation attempt within the area for 50 days.

Mill Valley's annexation is now blocked by Alto's move and a petition for stay of proceedings in Marin Superior Court by George Leo Zaro, who owns 42 acres within the proposed annexation.

School Building Contract Is Let

Contracts have been signed by Marin Country Day School officials for construction of an auditorium-gymnasium to be completed next March.

Cost of the 125-by-70 foot building and turfing of the adjacent playing fields is estimated at $130,000 to $140,000 by head master Peter F. Rothermel. Contractors are Ralph E. Murphy and Sons, San Rafael.

The auditorium will seat up to 900 persons and will have a stage. It will be available for community use, Rothermel said. With seats removed, the auditorium will become a gymnasium.

Birds Bother Pilots

SAN BRUNO (UPI)—The rainy weather this week has brought birds flocking to San Francisco International Airport, creating a hazard for planes. Ben Gaines, airport information officer, said yesterday birds such as gulls, coots and cormorants mistake rain pools on the runways for lakes. Other smaller birds come in to rest and feed.

CORPORATE BOUNDARIES—The new city of Marincello, described in plans released today, will cover a large area of Southern Marin. Its eastern tip touches the Waldo Tunnel and its western edge borders Rodeo Lagoon.

be at its center and light industry will be at the southwest corner. Homes and apartments will be set in groups with open spaces about the groups.

Grouping employment facilities being grouped with homes to attract residents is not a new idea, said Frouge, but this will be the first time it has been put into practice.

Asked regarding racial integration in the development, Frouge said he preferred not to answer "at this time." He said that would "work itself out" and would be up to the board of directors of an association to be formed of purchasers of Marincello property.

Marincello bordered by Forts Cronkhite, Barry and Baker as well as the City of Sausalito will be adjacent to the planned 40-square mile state park which will include parts of the military areas and headlands facing the sea of the west.

No figure of the project's eventual cost was given, but Frouge said two million dollars to get the project under way has been arranged for between the corporation and a group of banks on both west and east coasts.

The city would provide $2,700,000 per year in tax revenue to Marin County at current rates over and above the cost of services to Marincello residents, he claimed. This does not include sales tax.

Such additional tax income, if available now, would make possible a reduction of more than 8 per cent in every county tax bill, he asserted.

A tree farm to replace all trees cut during construction is part of the development, Frouge related . Frouge Corp. has headquarters in New York and Bridgeport, Conn.

Girl Wins Speech Contest

Claire Badaracco, 17-year-old Redwood High School senior, won the annual American Legion countywide high school oratorical contest yesterday in observance of Veteran's Day.

Claire received the $25 prize and will represent the county in the Legion's district competition in Santa Rosa Jan. 31. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Badaracco, 151 Barber Avenue, San Anselmo, and secretary of the Redwood student body.

Speakers from eight high schools competed in the supervisors' chambers at the Civic Center before more than 50 spectators. Each spoke on a phase of the Constitution emphasizing the duties and obligations of a citizen to the government.

Runners-up were Rick Atkins, Terra Linda High School student, and Steve Shuttleworth, Tamalpais High School student.

The Legion posts canceled their outdoor program because of rain.

Dog License Survey Set

Deputy tax collectors will begin a door-to-door survey of Belvedere and Tiburon in coming weeks to make sure dogs are licensed and have had antirabies shots.

Surveying of Sausalito has been completed and workers are half through with Mill Valley, Mel Morse, executive secretary of the Marin County Humane Society, reported today. A survey of northern Marin was made last year, he said.

The survey is part of countywide animal control work which cities have turned over to the county, which in turn contracted with the humane society to perform.

Dog-Walker Attack By Another Canine

A German shepherd dog knocked a woman down on a San Rafael sidewalk last night and bit her hand, San Rafael police reported.

Mrs. Marguerite Victoria Stern of 5 Charlotte Drive told Sgt. Carl Selby she was walking her own dog along Amalfi Drive near Canal Street about 10:55 p.m. when the German shepherd knocked her down and bit her.

Mountain Town Rebuilds Home Of Negro Family

GREENVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—This Catskill Mountain community of 1,900 is building a home for its only Negroes, Mr. and Mrs. Moses VanZandt, whose old house has been doomed by road construction.

"They're a respected couple in need of help. That's all we needed to know," a resident explains.

Mrs. VanZandt, 71, has lived in the house since she was 10. She did housework for other residents for nearly three decades. VanZandt, also over 70, has been a farmhand and handyman. Both are in failing health.

Meeting Postponed

The Marin Police Athletic League did not meet last night because of the holiday and has scheduled a meeting for 7:30 p.m., next Wednesday at either the Sausalito City Council chamber or Sausolito Public Library, Lt. Norman Snellgrove, secretary, said today.

Fairfax Man Is Arrested For Assault

Herman Brower, 51, of 7 Forest Terrace, Fairfax, was charged with assaulting Police Sgt. Charles Grasso Tuesday night after Grasso and another officer arrested him on a warrant charging battery.

Bail was set at $550 on the battery charge by Brower's landlady, Elda Mae Young of 7 Forest Terrace, who said he had beaten her and threatened to kill her Monday night during a fight at her boarding house. She told police Tuesday that she was unable to report the attack Monday night because Brower had ripped out the two telephones in the house.

Additional bail amounting to $276 was set for allegedly pushing Sergeant Grasso down stairs at the boarding house as Grasso and Officer Manuel Azevedo were taking him to county jail.

Brower was scheduled to appear in court this afternoon.

Tool Theft Hauls Get $440 Total

Reports of two thefts of tools with total value of about $440 were made by Marin County sheriff's officers today.

Albert C. Wilkinson, Berkeley, said a tool box and tools worth $240 were taken over the weekend from his pickup truck in San Geronimo Valley near Woodacre. Wilkinson said the vehicle broke down, and he left it there temporarily.

Alvis Allen of Marin County Department of Public Works told deputies a bolt-shooting gun, worth $200 was stolen from near a pickup truck Tuesday. He said he was loading other tools at the east side of Civic Center when he discovered the county-owned tool was missing.

SHOPPING FOR GIFTS WITH THAT PERSONAL TOUCH

If there is ever a time when you would really like to purchase something unique it is during the holiday season. Gifts are such a personal matter that we have made considerable extra effort just to collect the unusual from all parts of the world. You know how embarrassed the bride is to receive her eleventh electric toaster — don't, please, make the same error with gifts for family and friends by shopping only for the most common items.

One of the most pleasant tasks in operating a store such as ours is to personally select so many of the handcrafted pieces in our gift department during our many trips abroad and to different parts of this country as well.

Let me tell you about just a few things you will want to see on your next visit to our store. On a recent voyage to Portugal we purchased lovely ceramics in colorful decorated glazes, mostly with a delft blue background. Several large jars and an umbrella stand were so attractive we decided to make them into lamps. This we also did with tall wooden candlesticks from Spain. There was a family in one small village that had for generations been turning and carefully hand gilding these beautiful candlesticks—some nearly five feet tall. Made originally for cathedral use they now provide just the right touch to set off Mediterranean furnishings, whether used for candles or as lamp bases. We have both and no two pieces are exactly alike.

Also from Spain come handsome wall console tables with marble tops and matching roccoco gilded mirrors. We were so intrigued with the elaborate work on the mirror frames that we bought several without glass to set off your favorite oil paintings. There are ovals and oblongs in many sizes.

We have long been known for our outstanding collection of artware from the orient and continue to add to it with new wall screens, vases and lamp bases just arrived. What you may not know is that we also have direct imports from Denmark that you will find nowhere else. A collection of sofa pillows features hand-woven, brilliantly colored covers and are down filled. There are delicate wood mobiles by one of Denmarks' outstanding young sculptors and a wonderful selection of signed ceramic pieces by world famous Bjorn Winblad.

Why not plan to do your gift shopping here if you appreciate good design in hard-to-find objects? Remember that we are open both Wednesday and Friday evenings until 9:00.

OPTIMIST CLUB DINNER

Three Youths Due Honors For Outstanding Community Work

Three young men will be honored by the Mill Valley Optimist Club at a dinner tomorrow at the Flamingo Hotel in Santa Rosa.

They are Jim Kott, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kott of 361 Cascade Drive and John Elder, 17, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Elder, 271 Sycamore Avenue, both of Mill Valley, and Leslie Mize, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Mize of 140 Vista Grande, Greenbrae.

The youths were selected as "outstanding people in their community" during Youth Appreciation Week.

Young Mize, a bookkeeper for John Finn III in Mill Valley and a student at College of Marin, was a Cub Scout and Boy Scout. He is active in assisting at teen-age dances each week in Mill Valley, assisted at the Youth Council's recent spaghetti feed, and manages car washes weekly. He is a teen-age director of Recco 17, has worked selling light bulbs and with paint brush and hammer at the Mill Valley community and youth center.

Young Kott managed the Christmas tree lot in 1962 and 1963 which raised $1,500 for the Community and Youth Center. He sold the most tickets to a youth dance at Tamalpais High School in 1963 to benefit the community center.

Young Elder, president of the senior class at Tamalpais High School, was a delegate to California Boys' State at Sacramento, held a varsity letter three years in wrestling, and plays in the school band.

He was an officer of Honor T three times and a member of the California Scholastic Federation. He was active in the organization for racial understanding and has worked on the summer recreation program at Marin City and for the American Friends Service Committee.

Recreation Boat Pollution Model Law Is Proposed

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — A committee recommended to the National Assn. of State Boating Law Administrators Tuesday that there be a model state law to deal with the problem of pollution from recreational boats.

It also suggested to the association's three-day convention that state and private groups campaign to discourage littering of waterways by both recreational and commercial craft.

Keith Wilson, director of the Michigan State Waterways Commission, said his committee found in a national survey that pollution originating from pleasure craft was not as serious as some believed. But he said states were intent upon passing laws on the subject and therefore should get together on uniform regulations.

Wilson said his committee had requested the Outboard Boating Club of America to prepare the model law. The committee also recommended that Congress adopt the model act as legislation to apply to federal waters.

The committe recommended that effective date of legislation be postponed for five years to give boat owners and manufacturers enough time to comply with regulations.

Teachers Report Increased Funds

BURLINGAME (UPI) — The California Teachers Assn. said yesterday that California will receive at least 110 million dollars in funds under the expanded National Defense Education Act during the next four years.

The association, in a survey released yesterday, said the sum is more than double what California received under the National Defense Education Act during the past four years.

The expanded act was passed by the 88th Congress just before its adjourned last month.

Synanon Wants To Tell 'Full Story' Tomorrow

Tomales Bay residents have been invited to Synanon at Marshall for a meeting at 3 p.m. tomorrow to hear "the full story" on zoning, Synanon director Jack Hurst announced today.

Hurst said Synanon will "make its position clear" in the dispute with the county of Marin over a use permit. The county has insisted that Synanon needs a use permit to operate its rehabilitation center for former narcotics at the old Marconi property. Synanon representatives have said no permit is needed.

Synanon faces a court injunction promised by Marin County Supervisors if no application for a use permit is filed this week.

Hurst announced yesterday that there will be no application.

The injunction ordered by supervisors would seek a court order for abatement as a violation of a county ordinance.

Sausalito Check Suspect Flown Back From South

Sausalito police flew to San Diego Tuesday to bring Nora Elaine Ryan, 33, to Marin County jail, where she was booked on charges of issuing worthless checks.

Police Chief Kenneth H. Huck said Miss Ryan, a secretary who once lived on Rodeo Avenue, is alleged to have passed checks amounting to several hundred dollars at several Sausalito business houses. Bail was set at $1,100.

Miss Ryan was arrested by San Diego police on a Sausalito warrant. She was returned by officer John Higgins and dispatcher-clerk Betty Bergquist.

A SCHOOL BUS?—Teen-agers commuting to school with Bradburn Barrows, 18 (at wheel), ride in style in this 1939 12-cylinder Lincoln. Young Barrows, of Middleton, Mass., says he takes on rider to help pay for the gas. (AP Wirephoto)

'OLD' 1939 CAR

Youngsters Go To School In Style

MIDDLETON, Mass. (AP) — Those who commute to school with Bradburn Barrows, 18, travel in comfort and style foreign to today's hot-rodders.

Bradburn drives a shiny, black, 12-cylinder Lincoln limousine that's 19 and one-half feet long and fitted out like a living room.

It has leather upholstery, teakwood paneling, foot pillows, chromium fixtures, window blinds, an intercom system and a roll-down window that separates the passengers from the chauffeur.

"This is the greatest," said young Barrows today. "We didn't know such comfort when I was driving my 1932 hot-rod with no hood and no roof.

"We've had as many as 17 in the car. At drive-in theaters we invite young people from other cars to join us and sit around in a crowd."

Barrows said he isn't trying to compete with the school buses, "but the more kids I pack into the car the more there are to chip in for gas."

"They don't make 12-cylinder cars any more. This car is a 1939 model, and it's not exactly gentle on gas consumption. I bet I don't get eight miles a gallon on it.

"We've ordered as much as 20 gallons at one time, and the gas tank wasn't even full. And the other day when the oil was changed it took 11 quarts."

Young Barrows obtained the 1939 Lincoln recently through his father, R. Lionel Barrows, co-inventor of an automatic pin-setting machine for bowling.

The transistor, which has replaced the vacuum tube in many electronic devices, was so named because it transfers a signal across a resistor.

Planners Due Sign Ordinance In Mill Valley

Mill Valley planning commissioners on Dec. 8 will consider amendments to the city's sign ordinance.

Harvey Bragdon, city planning director, was asked to prepare suggested amendments by the planning commission on Tuesday night. Commissioners were disturbed about a revolving sign installed at Small World Travel Inc. at 25 East Blithedale Avenue.

Commissioners also asked Bragdon for a comprehensive study on arterial and neighborhood steps. The city council has asked the commission to determine whether the Bernard Street steps, closed off for safety, could be classified by the city as arterial, thus justifying city funds to repair them.

The East Mill Valley general plan will be discussed by the commission Nov. 24, reported Robert B. Mountjoy, chairman.

PUPILS GET CIVIC TASK

Only youngsters in the city of Milton, Wash. will know their way around for a while—the older folks may have to get used to a new street system. Because of longtime confusion over similarity of street names, the city fathers gave fifth and sixth graders the chore of assigning letter names to one set of streets, numbers to all those running the other way. On the job yesterday were Shelley Spencer, Bob Johnson, Marjene Schlumpf and Marty Rigdon. (AP Wirephoto)

Cambodia Rejects Border Plan

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (UPI) —Cambodia today rejected a recent South Vietnamese suggestion that the United Nations name a mediator to help settle the border dispute between the two nations.

The government said U.N. intervention in the Indochina problem could not be justified, and added that the only competent authority would be a meeting of the 1954 Geneva Conference nations.

The statements were contained in an official government release published today by Agence Khmer Presse, the state news agency.

Attorney General Post Still White House Question Mark

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — Although President Lyndon B. Johnson was quoted as saying "I have asked all the Cabinet to stay," questions remained today about the future of acting Atty. Gen. Nicholas deB. Katzenbach.

Acting White House press secretary Malcolm Kilduff provided the presidential quotes to newsmen Wednesday, then added: "So it can be assumed they will stay."

Within two hours, however, NBC reported that Washington attorney Clark Clifford, a longtime friend and adviser to Johnson and counsel to former President Harry S. Truman, would be named to succeed Katzenbach, who became top man in the Justice Department when Robert F. Kennedy resigned two months ago.

Asked about the report, Kilduff said the President was "thoroughly satisfied with having Katzenbach in his present position." Kilduff added that Johnson was "very pleased with the Cabinet as a whole at this time" and if any changes were to be made, "he would be pleased to let you know."

Katzenbach is not a member of the Cabinet so the statement would presumably not include him.

Kilduff volunteered a further statement on the subject today, denying that Clifford will be named to the attorney generalship.

"That report is untrue," he said.

SCRATCH IN NEW CAR? HECK, HAVE ANOTHER

CREWE, England (AP)—Gordon Ignatewicz, a Canadian car fancier, found a scratch on his new Rolls-Royce. He packed it off from Toronto to the Rolls headquarters in London with a sharp letter of complaint.

The company dispatched another new Rolls—unscratched—across the Atlantic by mail.

"We couldn't do this for everybody," said Dennis Williams, a company spokesman, "but Gordon is only 8 — and the car was a four-inch model."

Mistrial Declared In Hit-Run Death Case

CELINA, Tenn. (AP)—A son's 100,000-mile, 18-year search for his father's killer came to another temporary dead end today when the second degree murder trial of Grover Jones ended in a mistrial.

Judge John A. Mitchell declared the mistrial at the state's request on grounds that two character witnesses for the 55-year-old Indianapolis handyman were related to members of the jury.

He did not announce plans for a new trial immediately.

In his motion, Dist. Atty. Gen. Baxter Key Jr. said Mrs. Eldon Long is a sister of juror Robert Jackson, and Lester Brown is a brother-in-law to juror Eula Copass.

The case presented to the all-male jury in the three-day trial was based on the work of Welby Lee, 51, Tompkinsville, Ky., son of Newt Lee, 64, who was struck down by a car Dec. 31, 1944.

The jury received the case late yesterday. It was unable to reach a verdict in an hour of deliberating, and was instructed by the judge to "work on it" overnight. The mistrial motion came when it returned today.

Welby Lee testified that he eliminated 18 suspects before centering his amateur sleuthing efforts on Jones in January, 1962. He said he confronted Jones with his evidence three times before presenting it to a grand jury.

As he did to Lee in person, Jones denied he was the driver, said he had never seen the elder Lee and wasn't even in Tennessee when he was killed.

His divorced wife, who formerly lived in this Cumberland mountain country, backed up his testimony. Jones blamed his in-laws, who had told Lee that Jones was the driver.

Rainy Days Are Causing Vandalism

Someone's copy of "What To Do on a Rainy Day" must include tips on vandalism, San Rafael police are beginning to suspect.

A rash of petty vandalism has accompanied the rain storms of the past week. Among the latest cases were these:

George Dreyer of 1363 Lincoln Avenue reported two outside spot lights, valued at $5, were broken Tuesday.

Eva M. Beadle of 35 Kinross Drive said gasoline was poured on her lawn, killing the grass in a two-foot area.

Timothy D. Deasy of 640 Mission Avenue told officers someone shot a pellet gun at two windows in his home Monday.

Becky Joy Caran of 205 Laurel Place reported Tuesday that someone threw a rock through the left rear window of her car. She said the crash, at 6:30 a.m., woke her up.

Five From Marin To Health Session

Five Marin women will be among 500 delegates to the three-day annual session of the National Assn. for Mental Health, starting Wednesday at the Hilton Hotel in San Francisco.

They are Mrs. Stanley A. Kane and Mrs. Dan Dougherty of Greenbrae, Mrs. Franklin G. Collins and Mrs. Louis Harding of Mill Valley and Mrs. Lee Livingstone of San Anselmo.

Glenwood Will Draft Plan Stand

Members of the Glenwood Homeowners' Assn. agreed Tuesday night to hold a special meeting to draft a stand on the proposed San Rafael General Plan before the city council winds up its hearings on the plan.

Second, and possibly last, hearing is scheduled for Nov. 30.

Association members discussed the plan at length, and said they hope to co-ordinate their views with those of other homeowners groups in east San Rafael.

The association elected six of its seven directors for 1965. President Bud R. Rockwell will become the seventh member of the board when he leaves office in January.

The new directors are Bruce Hansen, William D. Manca, Robert S. Logan, Lee Brand, Robert C. Rice and Henry Van Galen.

Officers will be elected at the January meeting, according to secretary Stephen G. Croley. Next meeting is Dec. 1.

HUMP-BACK ONE IN NECK SPLINTS

Columbus, Ohio, zoo veterinarian Lee Simmons, said yesterday "by all rights" Fuzz, a 30-month-old camel "ought to be dead," but gave her a good chance to recover, after putting her long neck in splints. Fuzz, a lady camel, was struck by a non-gentleman camel, Clyde, and suffered severe tendon damage and separated vertebrae. (AP Wirephoto)

Strike Closes West Coast's Paper Plants

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The first major strike in the West Coast pulp and paper industry in 30 years began today after negotiations for a new contract broke down and an appeal for postponement by Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz was rejected.

The walkout affected 21,000 workers in 49 plants in Washington, Oregon and California.

However, members of two former unions that represented the workers said they would report to their jobs at the Camas, Wash., plant of Crown-Zellerbach Corp. Members of the Assn. of Western Pulp and Paper Workers put up pickets there this morning.

Negotiations bogged down, union officials said, over status of a management rights clause giving management the right to decide issues not specifically covered by the contract.

Employers had offered a package they said amounted to 16¾ cents per hour. They offered to make it retroactive to June 1 providing there were no more "wildcat" walkouts. Some 1,900 workers in four Antioch, Calif., plants left their jobs earlier.

Perrin also turned down a management proposal that union negotiators let the employees vote on the employer offer.

Dentist's Patients Happy To Get Drilled—Under Hypnosis

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Dr. Irwin A. Epstein, a St. Paul, Minn., dentist, has some patients who walk in smiling, plop into the dental chair, and let him do any kind of work on their teeth without anesthetics.

They are patients he has trained in self-hypnosis, he explained.

He spoke today at the 105th annual session of the American Dental Assn.

Dr. Epstein estimated he uses hypnosis with only about 5 to 8 per cent of his patients, sometimes in combination with local anesthetics, refrigerants, analgesia and general anesthetics.

Social Security

Changes in social security legislation will be discussed by Mrs. La Verne G. Magner of the social security administration in San Francisco at 7:30 p.m. Monday at a meeting of the North Bay Chapter of the Society of California Accountants at the Rancho Rafael Motel, 6045 Redwood Highway, Ignacio.

Truck Driver Grabs Man Off Bridge Rail

A tow truck driver wrestled a man to the deck of the Golden Gate Bridge after pulling him from the rail early today, then held him until he could be handcuffed.

James E. Powers, 25, of San Francisco, an unemployed artist, was taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation. He denied that he was trying to end his life.

Tow truck operator Raymond Parker and bridge officer Aldo Trevesan both saw the man walk onto the bridge at 12:25 a.m. Trevesan called to him that pedestrians were not allowed on the bridge at night, but Powers kept on walking, they told the California Highway Patrol.

Parker got his truck, Trevesan jumped in, and they drove after the man.

As Parker stepped from the truck, Powers broke into a run toward the toll plaza, then climbed the rail. Parker grabbed him.

Book, Clothing Drive Starts At Seminary

A book and clothing drive for the Negro citizens of Hattiesburg, Miss., is being conducted by the student council of the San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo.

The Negroes have inadequate clothing for their young people and no library facilities, the students say. The council is looking for warm, clean clothes and modern novels, children's books, and books on Negro history, the arts and music and general education. Donations may be taken to Susannah Baird Hall, 30 Waverly Road. To have books or clothing collected, donors may call Joan Cann at Susannah Baird Hall or Scott Miller at Oxtoby Hall. The drive ends Saturday.

Woman Is Scraped By Passing Auto

Dolores Sager of 5 La Vista Way, San Rafael, told police Tuesday night she had suffered a scrape and bruise on her left arm when a passing car's door handle struck her as she was walking on La Vista Way near her home.

The driver, who honked at her seconds before she was hit, continued without stopping, she said.

Hatfield Offers Plan To Build Republican Party To Strength

SALEM, Ore. (UPI)—Gov. Mark Hatfield of Oregon offered a three-point plan for rebuilding the Republican party today, and warned GOP leaders to quit "jockeying for the 1968 presidential nomination."

"We must rebuild the party organization and leadership on a first things first basis.

"If the Republicans don't do better in 1966 than they did in 1964, we might as well throw in the towel as far as 1968 is concerned," the Oregon governor said.

Many political observers believe last week's election greatly enhanced Hatfield's position in the Republican party. His speech attacking extremism keynoted the GOP national convention which nominated Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

Hatfield, in an interview, called for Republicans to:

1. Outline a positive, progressive policy and philosophy based on the records of accomplishments of Republican governors;

2. Establish "counsels of ideas" between GOP officeholders and rank and file party members at the local level, and,

3. Concentrate on making substantial GOP gains in 1966 as a prelude to the 1968 presidential contest.

Hatfield said Republicans must establish "a broad middle ground philosophy and outline positive positions on civil rights, medicare, taxation, conservation, education and foreign aid."

Demo Scrap Shaping Up In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Already involved in a sectional scrap over one of their leadership jobs, Democrats appear to be heading toward a free-for-all scramble for prestige posts in the new Senate.

What committee assignments to give Sen.-elect Robert F. Kennedy of New York and other newcomers may prove more perplexing than the choice of an assistant leader to succeed Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota when he quits the Senate to become vice president.

A contest among Sens. John O. Pastore of Rhode Island, Russell B. Long of Louisiana and Mike Monroney of Oklahoma for Humphrey's old job seems to be shaping up into a sectional battle.

Pastore, generally credited with being President Johnson's favorite for the job, appears likely to get the support of Eastern and New England members who lean toward liberalism.

Long's basic backing is among conservative Southerners. He claims to have pledges in one form or another from 39 colleagues. There will be either 67 or 68 Democrats, depending on the outcome of a recheck in Nevada. But Long's bid has been damaged by his state's Republican majority in the presidential contest and his own opposition to civil rights legislation.

Woman Is Treated For Pill Overdose

Evelyn Townsend, 29, of 119 Woodland Avenue, was treated at 10:45 p.m. Tuesday at Marin General Hospital for an overdose of medications.

San Rafael police said she was taken to the hospital by ambulance, then later transferred to San Rafael General Hospital. She was released yesterday.

GOP To Continue Plea For Funds From 'Little Man'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican treasurer William Middendorf III says the GOP will turn once again to the man who answered the party's call for financial help — the little contributor.

It was, and will be, a measure born of necessity, he said in an interview Wednesday.

"Historically, we've been the party of the rich guy," Middendorf said. "This time he went over to the other side. So we had to go to the broad middle-income field, and we went after it hammer and tong."

Thus, he said, the party will continue a vigorous direct mail campaign for the $10-a-year sustaining contributions to help meet an estimated 1.5 million-dollar budget next year.

As the contributions drive pushed ahead, there were these other Republican developments:

Republican National Chairman Dean Burch was quoted by the National Broadcasting Co. as saying in a Jamaica interview that he won't be able to continue as chairman if the national committee votes "no confidence" in him at a meeting scheduled for January.

Sen. J. Caleb Boggs of Delaware suggested that Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky would be a good choice for party chairman if Burch is replaced. Morton was chairman from 1959 to 1961.

For a time during the campaign, the financial situation was bleak. But repeated televised appeals for funds resulted in hundreds of thousands of letters bearing contributions in the $1 to $10 range.

The net result: a surplus for the Republican National Committee. Middendorf won't say how much, but he scoffs at reports that it tops one million dollars.

Fire Hydrants Plea Is Turned Down

Novato Fire District commissioners last night turned down a North Marin Water District proposal to share costs of fire hydrants in a portion of the Black Point Assessment Districts.

Hydrants were included in facilities to be installed by the assessment district, but none were shown on School Road for about three-quarters of a mile east from Olive Avenue. The water district board proposed water and fire districts share the expense of installing them. The fire board last night said no.

ROBIN HOODS OF ROAD

Satan's Chauffeurs Lend Helping Hands

By BRUCE COLEMAN

A car, a can of gasoline and a credential card are requisites for one of Marin's newest car clubs—Satan's Chauffeurs. Also a must is a helpful hand.

Community service is the main purpose of the 19 "Robin Hoods of the Road." They perform this service by rescuing people who run out of gasoline or have car trouble.

The Satans are also interested in assisting in such activities as chaperoning Mill Valley youth club dances when there is a chaperone shortage, racing their cars, holding their own dances, and erecting a memorial in Mill Valley to the late President John F. Kennedy.

"We voted 100 per cent on the memorial," one youth explained, "but we have found no place to erect one so far."

"When we see someone having car trouble on the road," said Ken Mitchell, vice president, "we may push his car to the edge of the road and take him to the nearest gas station. If we can make the repair, we do."

Good government is another aim of the Satans through their constitution and by-laws, Mitchell said.

The young men plan to build a club car for racing and would like to see Marin have its own drag strip. The nearest one is at Cotati.

Car safety is emphasized and the first check-up, using a California Highway Patrol check list, is to be made Dec. 1. Brakes, headlights, directional signals and backup lights are among items checked. "We try for the highest points," said Satan Bob Reichmuth.

"The idea is for each member to take pride in his car and make sure it's safe," said Mitchell.

The chauffeurs have held three car washes, enabling them to buy white club jackets with their club name and car emblem on the back. They assisted the youth council in setting up tables at a recent council spaghetti feed.

The chauffeurs speak a different language when they describe a race. A recent one was held at Vacaville, and here's something of what happened:

"I have a 60 El Camino pickup truck," said Mitchell, proudly. "Bob Bradley was with me as my pit crew. They weigh your car. Mine is a 348 engine with three two barrels."

"I ran my 64 Chevrolet through under 'E' stock," said Riechmuth. "I have a 327 engine with four speed transmission. I ran for time against the clock. I turned in the high 14s at 94."

"We went off with a 58-59 Pontiac," said Bradley. "It was a class record holder for 'C' stock. We came out second. We turned about 14.2 or 14.3 seconds. (This refers to time elapsed through the one-fourth mile.) And the speed was about 100 plus.

Youngsters range in ages from 17 to 20 and are students at Tamalpais High and College of Marin or have jobs of their own. Their cars range from a 1923 Ford with a 1953 Cadillac engine to a 1964 Chevrolet.

Check Forger Wiles Told To Novato Group

A check on "The East Bank of the Truckee River" was actually cashed in California, Earl Simmons of the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation told a Novato meeting last night.

Other checks have been cashed that were signed "Faithful Ole Crook," "Hope U Ben Took," "Happy O. Jones," and "I. M. Stuck," he said.

Simmons addressed a public meeting on fraudulent checks sponsored by the Novato Chamber of Commerce and police department.

"The annual loss in the United States is about one billion dollars in bad checks, with California losing 30 to 35 million," he said.

Among his warnings to merchants: Never accept counter checks from strangers. "If you can't read the signature, make the person print the name below it." Match out for rubber-stamped checks, for checks without dates, and do not accept temporary driver licenses as identification.

Steelworkers Less Safe In Own Home

NEW YORK (AP)—Safety may begin at home, but in the case of steelworkers, statistics show that they are three times safer at work than at home.

Steelways, published by American Iron and Steel Institute, points out in its current issue that safe practices are taught to employees from the day they begin work.

SO LET'S RUN BEETHOVEN FOR PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was Beethoven by a landslide — bigger than the one President Lyndon B. Johnson chalked up—when the National Symphony Orchestra logged the returns in its favorite symphonic composer poll.

In an awesome display of musical popularity, the Bonn genius got 61.7 per cent of the vote in a field of 38 — a little better than the 61.4 per cent Johnson scored in another sort of contest last week. Immediately behind Beethoven were Sibelius, Mozart, Brahms and Tchaikovsky.

The National Symphony mailed 35,000 ballots to subscribers and the general public. About 1,000 ballots were returned.

Grand Duchess Steps Down

LUXEMBOURG CITY (UPI) — Grand Duchess Charlotte officially abdicated in favor of her oldest son today in a simple palace ceremony marked by the regal dignity with which she has ruled this tiny nation for the past 45 years.

Charlotte, 68, the "Grand Old Lady" of European monarchy, signified her abdication by embracing 43-year-old Prince Jean and affixing her signature to the document which ended her reign.

Government officials and members of parliament looked on. Prince Jean then took the oath of fidelity in a separate ceremony in the parliament building.

Ecumenical Stands Due For Delays

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — The Ecumenical Council has no chance of promulgating declarations on religious liberty and the Jews at this session, a member of the Secretariat for promoting Christian Unity reported today.

Father Thomas Stransky of the secretariat said at the American Bishops press panel that both controversial declarations have been extensively revised, and that the statement on the Jews now takes Moslems and other non-Christians into consideration.

This declaration, which originally aimed solely at condemning anti-Semitism based on the Jews' role in the crucifixion of Christ, has now been re-titled as "a declaration on the relation of Catholics to Non-Christian religions."

The declaration on religious liberty, which aims at putting the church on record in favor of freedom of worship according to conscience, also was described by Stansky as "much different" than the original version. The new declaration was checked out by the council's key theological commission Monday and should be distributed to the council Saturday.

Both declarations could reach the council floor for initial votes before the third session closes Nov. 21, according to Stransky, but neither has a chance of being readied for promulgation.

Painting At Gallery

Kathy Riggan of Novato, a College of Marin student, will be painting in oils at the Shoestring Gallery, 968 Second Street, Novato, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday. Mrs. Madeleine Lang of Novato is also showing paintings at the gallery.

Reporter Says Congressman Threatened Him

HONOLULU (UPI)—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.) last night threatened to "slug" a reporter who approached him in a bar at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel to ask for an interview.

Powell, accompanied by his secretary, Miss C. A. Huff, arrived here Tuesday night for talks with the state Department of Labor and Industrial Relations. Powell is chairman of the House committee on education and labor.

A Honolulu reporter said he approached the congressman as he was leaving his hotel to ask about his Hawaiian visit but was told: "No. It's my day off. The only holiday I've had."

The reporter said he found Powell and his secretary later in the bar of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel and again asked for an interview:

"You want me to beat a glass over your head?" Powell was quoted as saying.

The reporter said he declined the offer and that Powell then told him: "Get out before I slug you."

Airfield Manager

BARROW, Alaska (AP) — Rex Ahvakana, 52-year-old Eskimo who helped bring the bodies of Will Rogers and Wiley Post here after their plane crashed Aug. 15, 1935, has been named manager of the new Barrow airfield.

Warrants Issued For 'Beer Bust'

Warrants for arrest of 48 youths of both sexes—18 of them juveniles—were issued in Sonoma County Tuesday as the result of a Halloween "beer bust" in an unoccupied Sonoma house owned by Edward A. James of Novato.

Sonoma police, Sonoma County sheriff's officers and California Highway Patrolmen caught the 48 when they raided the house the night of Oct. 30. The officers said a 17-year-old nephew of James had used the house for a beer party a week earlier, and on the night of the raids, the youngsters were sold "all the beer they could drink for a dollar."

Besides the 48 caught—all of whom were to be charged with either disturbing the peace, trespassing, or both in the warrants issued yesterday—an unknown number of others fled into the night during the raid. Police said they fled through undergrowth thick with poison oak.

College Minority Class Will Graduate Tomorrow

A short graduation ceremony will be held in San Anselmo tomorrow for 19 women in the College of Marin clerk-typist training class for minority group workers.

The program at 2 p.m. at the college's San Anselmo Center, 21 Mariposa Avenue, will mark the end of a 30-week class conducted under the federal manpower retraining program, the first set up by the college especially for minority group members.

Graduates will be referred to the San Rafael office of the State Department of Employment, which originally screened the class members.

The class started in April with 25 students, and 21 are still enrolled, according to Irvin Colt, assistant dean of adult and technical education. Seventeen of these will complete requirements for graduation tomorrow. Two others, who already have found jobs, will return for the ceremony.

The class will be addressed by Colt and Dr. Elsworth Briggs, dean of adult education.

It is composed mostly of mothers. Mrs. Diannia Smitn of Marin City leads with seven children.

Students attended class seven hours a day, five days a week to learn typing, grammar, business psychology, operation of adding and transcription machines, rotary calculator, duplicator and mimeograph.

They were also taught filing techniques, bookkeeping skills, and civil service testing methods, along with special sessions on grooming, the telephone industry, job interviewing techniques, and job opportunities.

A new class will begin Nov. 30.

The graduates are Grace Christen, Sue Collins and Sylvia Latshaw, Tiburon; Margaret Beauchamp, Barbara Douglas, Joyce Gailes, Judy Johnson, Rita Johnson, Shirley Johnson, Nancy Polk and Diannia Smith, Marin City; Genevieve Jefferson and Marguerite Estes, Mill Valley; Beverly Simpson and Loretta Wade, San Rafael; Ida Mae Williams, Richmond, and Delores Tucker, Georgia Taylor and Willa Davis, Vallejo.

Russ Unhappy As 'Aggressor'

SWITZERLAND (UPI) — The Russians apparently are unhappy because someone put a picture of Soviet Communist Party chief Leonid Brezhnev on an "aggressor" tank during recent Swiss war games.

A foreign ministry spokesman said today Soviet Ambassador Alexander Loshchtakov has drawn the Swiss government's attention to a photograph of the tank during the maneuvers in eastern Switzerland between Red attacking and Blue defending forces.

The spokesman said Swiss Foreign Minister Friedrich Wahlens assured Loshchtakov in an investigation of the "inadmissable" incident had been opened.

The spokesman said the Russian move was not a formal protest.

ARMLESS BOY, DOG REUNITED

JAMES (Bucky) Welch, who lost both arms in a railroad accident in August, is back home in Louisville, Ky., today with the puppy that figured in the accident. The 7-year-old boy was injured when he reached beneath a train to pull Smokey away from the wheels. (AP Wirephoto)

New York Gem Theft Reported

NEW YORK (AP)—Another big Manhattan jewel theft was reported today and this time the victim was the mother-in-law of songwriter Irving Berlin.

Police said jewelry valued at $111,000 was stolen from the swank five-story house of Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay sometime between noon last Sunday and 2:30 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Mackay had been taken to St. Luke's Hospital for treatment of an undisclosed ailment at noon Sunday. She still is there.

Speakers Are Split On Tam Unification

Four radio panelists took another whack at the seemingly perennial argument of "big" school unification versus "smaller" unification on radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" today.

With Kitty Oppenheimer as moderator, the speakers split 2-2 on whether three unified school district should be created of the Tamalpais Union High School District area, which now includes 11 districts. They would be centered on Tamalpais, Redwood and Drake High Schools.

In favor of the three-way unification were Mrs. Watson M. Conner of the Marin County Committee for School District Organization and Mrs. Alyce Farkas, chairman of the Reed School District board.

Against it and in favor of combining all in one unified district (a proposal rejected at the polls last June) were Mrs. John W. Binckley of the County Committee on School District Organization and Laurence G. Hermann, president of Fairfax School District board.

Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Farkas argued that a smaller district brings the school administration closer to students and public, promotes more citizen participation on school boards, and provides more "local citizen control."

Declared Mrs. Farkas: "Don't be fooled by the Legislature and its Little Sir Echo, the State Board of Education," which has been urging that smaller districts combine into larger unified districts.

But Mrs. Binckley and Hermann held that a single unified district would eliminate duplication of services, and school building construction could be pooled. Furthermore, three-way unification would work to the disadvantage of the Drake High School area, which has the lowest wealth per pupil and lacks the potential for commercial development that the Redwood and Tamalpais areas have.

In answer to questions from the radio audience, the speakers said they certainly do not object to having children of minority races attend classrooms with their own. But they said the "ethnic question" is not necessarily connected with school unification.

A taped version of today's discussion will be re-broadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Marjorie Salin of 15 Ross Street, San Rafael, suffered bruises on her knees and chest yesterday when her car was rammed from behind by another vehicle.

She told San Rafael police the other car kept going at fast speed after the impact.

She was parking her car on Mission Avenue near Boyd Park at 4:40 p.m. when the mishap occurred.

FIVE, DIME LETTER HAS RARE VALUE

William W. Remak said today he received this letter, unsigned, at the Glenn Five and Ten which he operates in Sausalito at 670 Bridgeway:

"Dear Sir, I am sorry that I took some things from your store and I am now paying you back." Enclosed was 35 cents.

"This is the kind of letter you always hope for but rarely ever get," said Remak.

Fairfax Mayor Predicts Hiring Of Administrator

The City of Fairfax may hire a city administrator next year to assume the responsibilities of purchasing agent, personnel and finance officer — positions currently held by City Clerk Alice Leonesio.

Mayor Cornelis van Vliet predicted the administrator would be hired by next July when Mrs. Leonesio is planning to retire after serving as city clerk for 19 years.

Mrs. Leonesio today confirmed reports of her contemplated retirement, which was mentioned by the mayor this week at a meeting of the Fairfax Merchants Assn.

"The possibility of hiring a city administrator or manager has been kicked around unofficially by the council but no official action has been taken yet," van Vliet said today.

"We have been taking care of many administrative matters in council meetings which could be handled by an administrator. We should be making policy decisions and not being involved in administrative matters," he said.

The elective position of Fairfax city clerk includes a salary of $100 per month. Mrs. Leonesio receives an additional $663 per month for the three other positions. Her term as city clerk runs to April, 1968, so if she should retire next year the council could appoint a clerk to fill out the term.

The Town of Ross and Fairfax are the only two communities in Marin County which operate without a city administrator or city manager.

Dixie Board Seeks More Communication

The Dixie School District board last night considered ways of keeping communication open among board, teachers and parents as the district grows.

"Board members recognize that they know but few teachers, and teachers and parents recognize that there is all too little knowledge and understanding of the board's actions," reported Supt. Dennie B. Willis.

Trustees suggested a conference of teachers, parents, school administrators and board members.

Donn Nissen, chairman of the district's advisory finance committee, reported the financial implications of the proposed unification with San Rafael High School District were uppermost in the minds of the committee and the public of the district. The committee will study the effects of unification on the tax rate, building program and educational program, he said.

The Dixie School District board also:

1. Hired Mary Lou Lewis as a teacher at Vallecito School to succeed Mrs. Patricia Wright, who is on leave, at $6,950 per year.

2. Authorized the superintendent to sign a contract with the City of San Rafael for turfing of playgrounds at Vallecito, Don Timoteo and Nova Albion schools, all within the city.

3. Adopted a sabbatical leave policy that requires those requesting leave to describe a program that will be of "direct and substantial benefit" to the district.

Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows, acting executive officer of the commission, is scheduled to present the proposals. Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, a commission member, is to welcome the committee.

The commission's meeting scheduled for today was canceled for lack of a quorum. The next meeting was scheduled for Nov. 27 at 8:15 a.m. at the Civic Center.

FIRST JOB AT NEW FACILITY—Reynaldo Rzmirez (left) and Baldo Cordova clean up Army Engineers' scavenger craft Raccoon at Diesel Engineering and Maintenance in Sausalito. The firm, long located at Hunter's Point in San Francisco, has moved its shipyard and repair business to 1702 Bridgeway.
(Independent-Journal photo)

Engineering Firm Moves To Sausalito

Diesel Engineering and Maintenance, a firm specializing in boat work—much of it for the Navy—has moved to Sausalito from Hunter's Point, San Francisco.

Delmar D. Wise, owner of the new industry, supervised moving the last equipment to the dock at 1702 Bridgeway last week. The boat yard was formerly run by Associated Dredging Co., which will continue to do dredging business in offices and dock space at the address.

First government contract, said Wise, was to dry-dock the 300 - ton Raccoon, The Army Corps of Engineers scavenger vessel which picks up flotsam and jetsam on Bay waters. The Raccoon and its sister ship, the Coyote, are based in Sausalito.

Wise has moved into his dock area a 110-foot shop barge, a former navy repair facility, containing lathes, presses, milling machines and welding equipment. It is the only such barge in Marin which can be brought alongside a boat or ship for repairs.

The facilities will be used in repair work and on new boat construction in the yard, and in modernization of the four marine railways which, in former years, made Sausalito one of the busy maintenance yards in the bay for sports and commercial fishing fleets.

Two new enterprises are also planned in the complex, located at the foot of Napa Street: A fisherman's supply store and a marine fuel station for sports and commercial boats.

Frank Taormina will open a branch of his San Francisco store, Frank's Fisherman's Supply, specializing in commercial fishing tackle, marine hardware and cordage.

Richfield Oil Corp. plans to erect a fuel station on the outer end of the dock, using a 240-foot linear space for a 24-hour-a-day service.

In the complex already is Sunbeam Bait Co. operated by Ray Evans of Mill Valley. Evans operates a "catcher" boat, Sunbeam II, which is equipped with tanks and pumps so bait may be kept alive while being transferred to receivers in the bay area.

Marine Electronics Unltd., which specializes in radio repair and installation on boats, moved in last Spring and is run by Gary Dekat and W. W. Wadsworth, both of Oakland. Casserino's fresh fish and crab market, as well as landing and processing fish facilities, are established with owner Cass Gidley who lives in Corte Madera, also now chartering sailboat service.

If You Joined Yule Club It's Starting To Pay Off

Pockets will jingle in Marin during the Christmas shopping season, at least the pockets of about 12,000 residents.

They are the ones who participated in Christmas Club saving programs.

These thrifty persons have set aside a total of $2,421,002.80, according to a check of savings institutions in the county.

Bank of America, with 11 branches in Marin, will send out a total of $678,382 to 3,611 savings club members.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

Art Gallery Is Interesting New Business In Tiburon

An interesting new business in Tiburon is Scovill Art Gallery at 21 Main Street.

This is devoted entirely to the marketing and display of the works of talented young David Scovill who won a first prize in a "discovery" art show back in 1958 while still a student at College of Marin.

Scovill works in oils, watercolors, serigraphs and woodblocks, and he is now making many silk screen prints of the Belvedere-Tiburon area. Some of these scenes are to be found on his Christmas card offerings. He also features a long strip scene of Main Street, Tiburon, in a choice of several colors to match your own decorative theme.

A native of Ross, he has a teaching credential in art, and has taught at Terra Linda High School and Del Norte High School in Crescent City. But he has given that up to let his inspirations take their natural course. He has had many shows around the Bay Area, and he won first prize in print making at the Marin Art and Garden Fair this year.

Business hours at the gallery are not clearly defined, but it is generally open during the daytime and most evenings including Saturday night. If you find the place closed, look up and down Main Street or around the byways until you see someone with his easel set up, trying to capture a particularly intriguing perspective on canvas.

That should be Scovill.

Scovill Burt

MONTH-LONG CAMPAIGN by Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn. in San Anselmo to relieve the coin shortage yielded $7,520.50 in small change. An average month brings in only about $3,250.

Prizewinners were Mr. and Mrs. Phil S. Ferris, San Anselmo; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Surratt, Fairfax; Mrs. M. L. Sinnicks Jr., Mill Valley.

Housewives: One way you can help the markets (who have the most trouble keeping enough small change) — when you cash a check, make it for your exact grocery tab instead of for a round sum.

DAVID E. BURT of San Rafael has been promoted to assistant vice president in Bank of America's area administration section at the San Francisco head office.

Burt recently celebrated his 15th anniversary with the bank. For more than four years he has been in the officers placement department. Before then he was employed one year at the San Rafael office and was on the bank's Junior Advisory Council. Previously he served in offices at Redding, Gridley and Ukiah.

FORMER INTERNAL REVENUE agent Joseph J. Rasonsky (and inventor of the "ski-mitt" mentioned in this column before) has announced the opening of a private practice as tax advisor and consultant, specializing in preparing tax returns, accounting and auditing, financial investigations and related matters. He is working from his home in Santa Venetia.

This is in addition to his Rason-Ski Co. venture.

SMITHS CLOTHIERS — not the store in Corte Madera, but the new one in the Southland Shopping Center, Hayward — features a completely open doorless front from sidewall to sidewall. Slideaway panels disappear when the store is open during shopping hours, leaving the front exposed.

Secret is in the fully enclosed, climate-conditioned mall on which it faces. The mall is the first of its kind in the northern half of the state.

Someday an enterprising developer may introduce one in Marin.

Redwood Group Says Park Plan 'Setback'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A proposal to create a 60,000-acre Redwoods National Park along the Northern California coast was termed unnecessary and economically damaging yesterday by the California Redwood Assn.

The association, representing seven of the largest redwood timber owners and lumber manufacturers in Northern California, said creation of the proposed park would deal a grave setback to the area's economy.

The Eureka Chamber of Commerce contends that Humboldt County would lose up to seven million dollars in assessed valuation, Del Norte County 2.8 million dollars; that there would be a loss of 1,200 lumber jobs and another 1,200 jobs in the related wholesale and retail trades.

The criticism was inspired by recent publication of a preliminary report by the National Park Service calling for concerted action by the federal and state governments —along with private groups— to preserve existing redwood stands.

The report suggested that the growth of tourism generated by creation of the park would more than offset the loss in revenue-producing timber. In the three counties involved in the park plan—Del Norte, Humboldt and Mendocino — lumber activities account for up to 40 per cent of total employment.

Philip T. Farnsworth, executive vice president of the California Redwood Assn., said the park service report "seriously understates" the degree of redwood preservation already accomplished.

He estimated that some 200,000 acres of redwoods already are preserved by public agencies and noted that the federal government already owns 49.7 per cent of the total land in California.

"The need facing our government is not to take over more land, especially productive, privately held land, but to come up with sound and effective plans for using and developing the tremendous areas already held," said Farnsworth.

He said the idea that tourists could compensate for economic damage caused by withdrawal of redwood lands from private ownership "is inconsistent with economic facts of the region . . . ."

Creation of the park, he said, would drive several established lumber companies out of business with accompanying "less of jobs and deadening economic effect on whole communities."

Farnsworth also accused the park service of virtually ignoring reforestation projects financed by the lumber companies. Reforestation has resulted, he said, in the growth of redwood forests as spectacularly beautiful as the ones they replace.

The park service is expected to issue a further report early next year. That report will be submitted to President Johnson for consideration.

A meeting in San Francisco has been arranged tomorrow with Edward A. Hummell, regional director of the western regional office of the U. S. Department of the Interior to get more details on the park proposals.

Attending will be supervisors of Humboldt, Del Norte and Mendocino counties and representatives of the Pacific Lumber Co. of Scotia and the Arcata Redwood Co. Those attending will press for a public hearing in Eureka.

Estimates of the Eureka Chamber of Commerce were that Arcata Redwood would be the big loser in acreage with 18,000. Last year its payroll was $2,130,000. The figure given for overall private ownership loss would be 52,110 acres.

Police Find Would-Be Leaper

Roger Louis DuVall, 27, who escaped from Mission Emergency Hospital in San Francisco Tuesday after being seized when he attempted to jump off the Golden Gate Bridge, was found by San Francisco police yesterday.

DuVall, a San Francisco job counselor, was seen entering a bar by his estranged wife, who called police.

He was returned, unresisting, to the hospital. Officer Don Goad told him, "I was just going to take a walk on the bridge. I wanted to scare my wife."

San Francisco cab driver James L. Rosemond said DuVall leaped from his taxi on the bridge early Tuesday and sprinted for the rail. Ray Parker, a bridge tow truck driver, saw him, stopped his truck and grabbed the sprinter.

The Ten Best In Management

New York

A blue-ribbon forum of management experts — the chief executives of 300 American corporations — has come up with a list of the ten best-managed companies.

The list, probably reflecting opinions arrived at a long time ago by common stockholders and the average consumer, as published in Dun's Review, a management publication:

General Motors, International Business Machines, du Pont, American Telephone & Telegraph, Standard Oil (New Jersey), Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing, General Electric, Eastman Kodak, Procter & Gamble and Sears, Roebuck.

General Motors was cited for its organization, IBM for its growth power, du Pont for financial efficiency, AT&T for corporate vitality and Standard Oil for its long-term record.

Minnesota Mining's strength is in new products, the experts agreed. General management was said to be GE's forte and a quality image Eastman Kodak's.

Procter & Gamble's strength is in marketing and merchandising and Sears' in performance and planning, the report said.

Blue Cross: the choice of a majority of America's leading companies

300 leading executives selected the ten best-managed companies in America—for growth power, efficiency, corporate vitality, performance, and planning. Significantly, more than half have Blue Cross plans. There are many reasons why so many companies (of all sizes) in California prefer Blue Cross. Here are a few:

• Lower overhead permits greater benefits. Consistently low overhead expense makes more money available for benefits. Year after year, Blue Cross has had one of the lowest operating cost records of any health plan. There is a minimum of paper work. The hospital bills Blue Cross directly. Doctor care payments are made directly to the employee after the employee fills out a simple form. Blue Cross takes the businessman out of the claims processing business.

• Offers both hospital and doctor care benefits. With Blue Cross there are many levels of group protection available. Programs are written to the specifications of the purchasing group. Today, there are more than 500 different combinations of benefits from basic hospital and doctor care benefits to major medical protection. Benefits can be tailored to the demands of a company and its employees. Most group programs can be expanded to include major medical protection.

• Universal recognition and acceptance. The subscriber's Blue Cross card brings him the hospital care he may need, arranged by the doctor of his choice. There is no red tape. Away from home, a subscriber can receive benefits in any licensed general hospital in the world. Payments have been made for Blue Cross subscribers hospitalized in most foreign countries.

• Pays for actual services. Blue Cross hospital service benefits are not in cash; they are in terms of the actual hospital services covered by the member's contract. Members are always certain that protection will cover the increase in hospital costs.

• Retirement continuation privilege. Blue Cross pioneered the retirement continuation privilege. A Blue Cross program is available for those who retire, change jobs or move to another part of the country.

SPECIAL NOTE

If you have the responsibility for a group health plan, remember Blue Cross has trained specialists in health protection. Salaried Blue Cross representatives have made the health protection field a career. Call the Man from Blue Cross or mail the attached coupon.

Hutchinson Dies After Long Fight With Cancer

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Fred Hutchinson, former manager of the Cincinnati Reds whose baseball career was ended abruptly by chest cancer, died early today in a hospital.

The 45-year-old Hutchinson, showing some improvement, was allowed to go to his home on nearby Anna Maria Island last Saturday. But his condition deteriorated rapidly and he was returned to the hospital in an ambulance Tuesday.

With his health failing fast, he had stepped down Oct. 19 as manager of the Reds. The job went to Dick Sisler, who became acting manager when Hutchinson went on sick leave Aug. 13.

Hutchinson, baseball's Manager of the Year in 1957 for his second place finish with the St. Louis Cardinals and again in 1961 for a pennant winner at Cincinnati, felt the first pain of his illness last Christmas.

Hospital tests confirmed the presence of a malignant tumor, but he continued to direct the Reds until illness forced him to quit.

Hutchinson, sometimes called The Bear because of an explosive temper, flew to Seattle last Dec. 24 for a two-month series of hospital treatments after learning of the malignancy.

He reported at Tampa, Fla., Feb. 29 for the opening of the Reds' spring training camp, but by July he was forced to pass up road trips to Milwaukee and St. Louis and enter a hospital in Cincinnati.

He took another leave Aug. 13 to enter Christ Hospital in Cincinnati and never returned to his job.

Before becoming a manager, Hutchinson was a successful pitcher in the minors and with the Detroit Tigers. His major league record of 95 wins, 71 losses, might have been better had he not missed four seasons, 1942 through 1945, in military service.

As a manager, Hutchinson was sometimes rough and tough, sometimes cool and patient.

When his temper flared, he took it out on the furniture in his clubhouse office, not the players.

After losing a game he believed he should have won, he would often stride into his office, slam the door and start throwing the furniture around. Sometimes, windows were broken.

When the storm broke, he would shower, shave, dress and step out, calm and smiling.

Later, he would get together with offending players, one at a time, for a private discussion of their faults. Because he never exposed one to public embarrassment, all his players liked him.

Hutchinson, a native of Seattle, won 25 games for Seattle of the Pacific Coast League in his first year as a pitcher and was named Minor League Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

His best pitching years at Detroit were 1949, when he was 15-7, and 1950, when he was 17-8.

On July 2, 1.52, he replaced Red Rolfe as manager of the Tigers. In the next two years, his teams finished sixth and fifth and it was back to the minors in 1955 as manager of Seattle.

Seattle won the pennant that year and from 1956 into the 1958 season he managed the Cardinals. They finished fourth in 1956 and second in 1957. Once again, he went back to Seattle in 1959, but he moved to the Reds on July 9.

A sixth place finish in 1960 was followed by a pennant in 1961, although the Reds lost to the New York Yankees in a five-game World Series. The Reds were a close third in 1962 and fifth in 1963.

Hutchinson was married in 1943 to Patricia Finley. They have four children — Rick, 20, Jack, 19, Patty, 16, and Joe, 9.

After taking over the Red management, Sisler called Hutchinson in Florida to tell him that he hated the condition under which he got the job.

"Don't worry about that," Hutchinson replied. "Just give 'em hell."

Brilliant Fielding Kept DiMaggio From Stretching His Hit Streak

Jack Hanley

Joe DiMaggio will be 50 next Wednesday and his fellow San Franciscans are throwing a banquet in honor of the Yankee Clipper. Inevitably, one speaker or another will recall that in 1941 DiMaggio hit safely in 56 consecutive ball games.

Some baseball men believe that is the most remarkable of all batting records. Perhaps they are right because of the many great hitters of all types who played before and after DiMaggio, none has approached his record and only three have hit in 40 or more consecutive games.

NOBODY EVER successfully analyzed DiMaggio's amazing record just as nobody has ever been able to analyze a batting slump. All anyone really knows about streaks and slumps is that good hitters, without exception, have both.

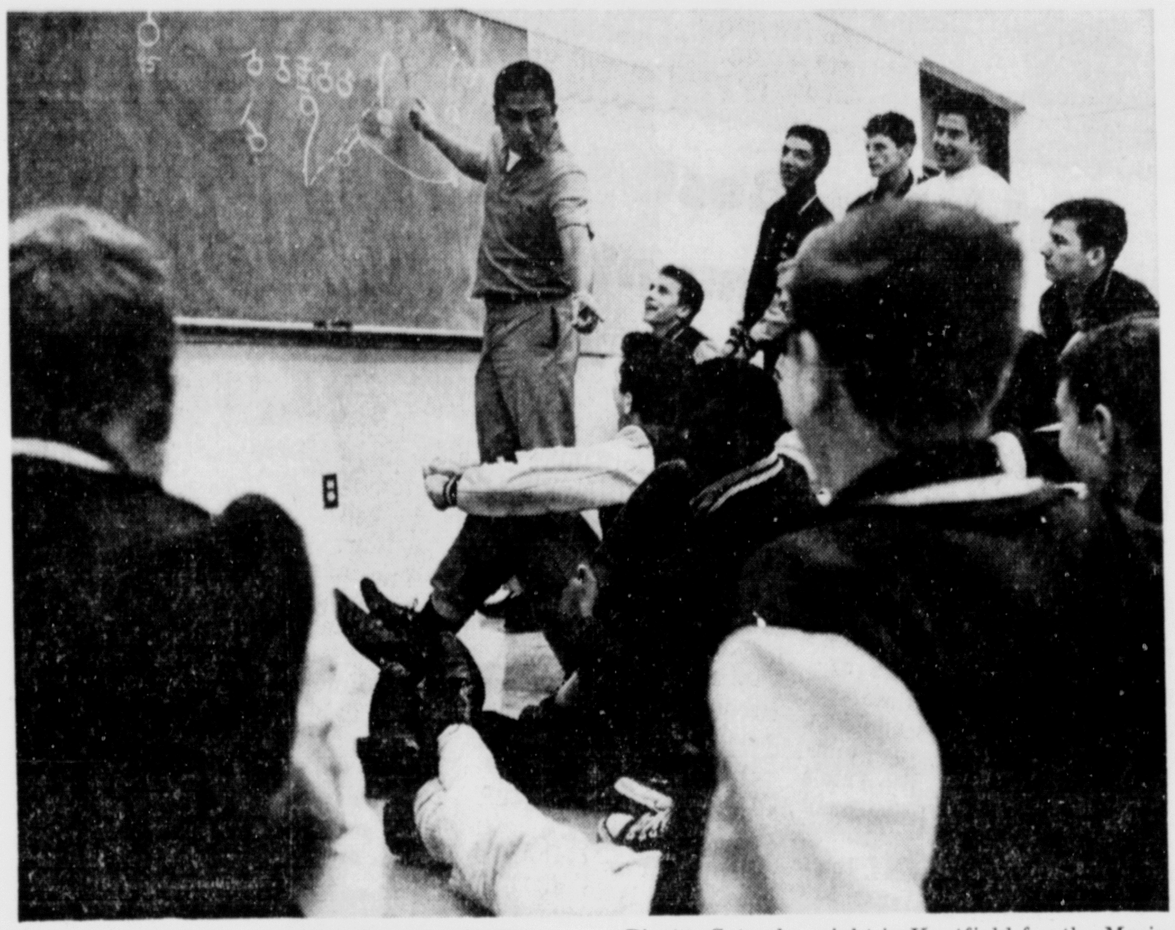
Almost forgotten about DiMaggio's record is the fact that he was in a deep slump, hitting only .177, when the streak began in the middle of May. It lasted until July 17, ending in a night game against the Cleveland Indians.

JIM BAGLEY was on the mound that night for the Indians. But it wasn't Bagby who stopped DiMaggio. Superlative fielding by Ken Keltner, Cleveland third baseman, stopped the streak. Every time DiMaggio came to bat, he hit the ball as hard as in any of the previous 56 games. But they were "at 'em" balls.

Coming to bat for the final time in the eighth inning, DiMaggio had yet to get a base hit. Bagby worked very deliberately, careful not to give DiMaggio anything good. Nevertheless, Joe hit a screamer down the third base line. It seemed to carry an extra-base label on it. But Keltner flung his body at the ball and unbelievably came up with it in time to make the play.

IF JOE had not been stopped that night he would have compiled an even more fantastic record since he then went on to hit in 16 more straight games which would have meant a streak of 73 consecutive games.

Luck, as well as natural ability, is needed to sustain a hitting streak. But the element of luck still does not detract from DiMaggio's great feat which was, according to his Yankee teammates, the most consistent performance under pressure they had even seen.



CHALK TALK—Yesterday's rains kept the Terra Linda Trojans indoors yesterday, so head coach Pete Limm went over diagrams of plays for his backfield men. The Trojans will meet the Drake Pirates Saturday night in Kentfield for the Marin Athletic League championship. By the way, for all you Drake scouts, that's a fake play on the blackboard and is not in the T.L. portfolio.

Coaches Meet At Kentfield Today

Everything depends on old Mother Nature.

She will have the last word on whether or not the championship football game between Terra Linda and Drake high schools will be played Saturday night in Kentfield.

The gridiron at College of Marin stadium has been reduced to a muddy swamp, but if the rains hold up it is expected the game will be played as scheduled. That is 8 p.m.

Coaching staffs of Terra Linda and Drake were to meet today at 10 a.m. to discuss the situation. Also included in the pow-wow was the coaching staff at Redwood, which is scheduled to host Tamalpais High School on the same field Saturday at 2 p.m.

Before the meeting was to get underway, Terra Linda head grid coach Pete Limm said the school was doing everything possible to get the game underway Saturday. Even mentioned was the possibility of playing the game on the Hamilton Air Force Base gridiron which is not as muddy as the Kentfield field.

But the HAFB field has no bleachers, which would raise all kinds of howls from Marin prep fans who have been waiting all year for this meeting between the two undefeated teams.

A consensus of the Independent-Journal sports staff finds Drake the unanimous pick. But according to a survey by sportswriter Maurice Weinger, four of the five other head coaches in the league choose Terra Linda to win.

Stanford Works On Kicking

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Stanford's football Indians prepared for Saturday's game with Oregon State by giving their league-leading field goal kicker lots of practice.

Coach John Ralston thinks a field goal may separate the two teams when the game is finished and he wants the edge to favor Stanford. Braden Beck—who shares the field goal mark with Oregon State's Steve Clark—stood on the 35-yard line and booted several of the three-pointers during yesterday's practice.

Beck had the regular practice field nearly to himself because the squad was scrimmaging on the rugby field which was drier. The coaches praised the offensive line which they said was opening big holes for the backfield men.

U.S. Archers Win Medals In Wheel Chair Games

TOKYO (AP) — Two American archers won the gold and bronze medals in the Columbia round competition for intermediate skilled competitors at the Tokyo international wheel chair games today.

Both men bettered the existing U.S. national wheel chair record of 574 points in the columbia round, set last June by Billy Simmons of Illinois, and Al Long of Buffalo, N.Y.

The gold medal went to Dan Kotter, 23-year-old architectural draftsman from Urbana, Ill., who scored 586 points.

Kotter, struck by polio at the age of 18 months, has been practicing archery as a member of the Illinois Archer Association. He was coached by American wheel chair ace Jack Whitmann.

The silver medal went to Italy's Longhi, who scored 584 points, and the bronze to George Pasipanki of the United States, who scored 580 points.

The ex-serviceman who was injured in a motorcycle accident, said, "It was the best score I ever shot."

Liston Favored By Vegas Bookies

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Bookmakers have posted Sonny Liston as an 11-9 favorite to regain the world heavyweight boxing title from Cassius Clay in their rematch Monday night.

Bettors, in moderate action, have kept Liston the favorite since he opened at 13-5.

Clay took the crown from Liston on a seventh round technical knockout last February in Miami Beach, Fla.

Portland Whacks Seals, 7-2

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The San Francisco Seals continued their string of disastrous road performances last night when they fell meekly before Portland in a 7-2 rout.

The win moved Portland into first place in the Western Hockey League chase, while the Seals are deeply entrenched in the cellar with a 3-9 record, four points out of fifth place.

The first period wound up 1-1 as Al Nicholson scored for the Seals and Tom McVie tied the count for the Bucks 34 seconds later. Portland put the game away with three goals in the second.

In the final stanza, Charlie Burns got one tally for San Francisco but by then the game was gone. Portland's Cliff Schmautz led the winners with a pair of goals.

Bobby Perreault blocked 34 shots in the San Francisco goal in addition to seven that got through. Dave Kelly made only 25 stops for Portland as most of the game was played in front of the Seal nets.

San Francisco tries to get back on the winning track tomorrow night at Vancouver. That's Friday the 13th but maybe that will mean bad luck for somebody else for a change.

LISTON FAVORED

Clay Just Laughs

BOSTON (AP) — Champion Cassius Clay is laughing at the boxing writers and other so-called experts who have installed challenger Sonny Liston as the favorite for their heavyweight championship bout next Monday.

"A thousand newsmen picked Liston before the last fight," he jeered, "but what happened?"

He noted Liston has been installed the favorite again and asked:

"Don't they ever learn?"

Clay, who prefers the name Muhammad Ali, insisted yesterday he will have the last laugh.

"Liston's a slow, old man," Clay said. "I can cut him easy. I'll slice his face up."

Clay was honored for the laughs he has given others. The Harvard Lampoon, a student publication devoted to satire, honored him as Athlete of the Year for having brought humor back to the gloomy boxing picture.

The Lampoon is best known for its annual awards to Hollywood stars for Worst Performance By A Male Actor, etc.

Clay showed no sign of humor while going four rounds with his favorite sparmate, Cody Jones. Clay picked up the pace from previous workouts and really took after Jones in the last round.

Jones was dazed when the handlers stepped in to halt the action for the day.

Liston boxed five rounds Wednesday, giving him a total of 148 since he started training for the attempt to recover the crown he lost in Miami.

The challenger also went after one of his sparring partners, Amos Lincoln, knocking the latter's headgear flying with a stiff rap to the head.

The holiday gave Liston his biggest crowd since he started working out at Plymouth. Some 500 persons jammed the gym, crowds stood at the windows outside and an estimated 1,000 were turned away.

Liston wouldn't talk to the writers after his workout. A camp spokesman said the challenger is getting tighter each day and had a hassle with trainer Willie Reddish Tuesday.

Junior Varsity Game Switched

The junior varsity football game between Novato and San Rafael High Schools has been switched to the Novato field at 3:45 p.m. tomorrow. The game was originally scheduled to be played on the San Rafael field, but was switched to protect the field so it will not be too chewed up for the varsity game at 8 p.m.

Redwood-Tam JV Contest Switched

Instead of playing the junior varsity game right before the varsity contest on Saturday, Redwood JVs will tangle with Tamalpais at the Giant field Friday afternoon starting at 3:30 p.m. it was announced by athletic director Bob Troppmann.

The shift in site was to keep Kentfield as free from contact as possible because the Giant varsity plays Tamalpais and the big Drake-Terra Linda games are scheduled for Saturday.

SAN RAFAEL KIDS TIE FOR TITLE

The San Rafael Junior Bulldogs narrowly edged the Tamalpais Junior Indians yesterday to gain a tie for the title of the Marin County Pop Warner Football League.

The Bulldogs won a slippery game, 13-12, at the Hamilton Air Force Base Field gridiron.

The victory ties San Rafael with the Redwood Junior Giants for the co-championship honors of the league, both teams winning four games and tying one. That tie (of course) was against each other earlier in the season.

Squaw Valley Ski Operations Start

TAHOE CITY, Calif. (UPI) — Squaw Valley, site of the 1960 Winter Olympic Games, opens for skiing on Saturday.

Officials there reported today that a two-foot blanket of snow had covered the area around the bottom of the lifts and packs up to four feet were at higher elevations.

CAL BEARS

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — California's Golden Bears ran through a short, muddy practice yesterday on the intramural sports field.

Coach Ray Willsey said the regular gridiron was too muddy for the scrimmage and worked on the team's "rainy day" offense and defense.

"We slopped around for exactly one hour and five minutes, working on a rainy day offense," Willsey said.

Defensive tackle Roger Foster—who hurt his knee against UCLA two weeks ago—is not expected to play Saturday against Utah.

Novato Star Takes Grid Rushing Lead

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Novato High School tailback Dick Otis ran himself to the top of the Marin Athletic League rushing statistics with his 132-yard performance last Saturday against Redwood.

It was the only breakthrough in the Drake-dominated statistics as the teams get ready to wind up the campaign this weekend. The Pirates of Drake lead the other individual statistics and as a team top the league offense and total defense.

Otis, a junior, has picked up 504 yards in 89 carries for a 5.6 average in league competition. He is trailed by Drake's Dean Lazzarini (397 yards) and Joe DeMasi (395). The former fell from the top of the standing after gaining only eight yards against San Rafael the same day Otis was picking up his 132.

The rest of the individual statistics are topped by Pirates. Al Simontacchi is the league's top passer with 417 yards gained, connecting on 26 of 52 attempts. Only two yards behind is Marin Catholic's one-man show, Bill Shine, who has finished his prep football days since Marin closed out its season last week.

Drake split end Larry Stein still holds a commanding lead in the receiving category, with 335 yards gained in 14 catches. Lazzarini leads the scoring parade with 38 points in league play, made on six touchdowns and two conversions.

Drake leads the passing statistics with 628 yards and Novato is in front in rushing with 934 yards. In total offense, Drake is in front with 1,476 yards in five games.

Allowing only 602 yards in five games, Drake leads the league in total defense, and also leads rushing defense, giving up 291 yards on the ground. Novato is the top team in the defensive passing figures, allowing only 264 yards against it in the air.

MORTON RECEIVES COACHES' PRAISE

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Craig Morton, California's standout quarterback, says he will give up baseball and concentrate on football as he aims for a professional career.

The 6-feet 4-inch senior has smashed every University of California passing record in his career and it will be a major surprise if he isn't picked in the first round of the professional drafts.

Coaches who have faced him rate him a true All America candidate and his own mentor, Ray Willsey, says:

"I think he is as fine a college quarterback as I've ever been around or seen. This would include such present pros as Don Meredith when he was at SMU, Frank Tarkenton at Georgia and John Brodie at Stanford."

As sophomores, both Morton and Mike Epstein were regulars in booth football and baseball. Epstein dropped football and last week signed a bonus contract with the Baltimore Orioles.

Morton made the opposite decision and last spring turned out for football drills instead of baseball. He has more baseball eligibility but said yesterday, "I don't plan to play baseball but instead will concentrate on football.

"I'd like to play professionally."

Minnesota coach Murry Warmath, who went to the California dressing room to personally congratulate Morton after the Gophers defeated the Bears 26-20, said, "As a pro type, he's the best quarterback in the country. He might be the first player drafted."

Dan Devine of Missouri, whose club was upset by the Bears, 21-14, commented this week, "If he isn't All-America, there isn't an All America team, as far as I'm concerned."

Morton ranks second nationally among collegiate passers behind Tulsa's Jerry Rhome. The California star has completed 143 of 235 throws for 1,649 yards and 13 touchdowns.

During his three-year career, he's broken every California school passing record — execpt interceptions. Only four of his 235 have been picked off by the opposition.

Willsey has been impressed as much by Morton's fierce competitive spirit and leadership as co-captain as by his passing.

This is the coach's first year at California and he heard stories of Morton in advance. Willsey comments today:

"He's lived up to those estimations and more so. He has the respect of everyone. His teammates and the coaching staff have great confidence in him and he has a great deal of confidence in himself. Keep in mind when you look at our won-loss record that he didn't play defense."

California is only 3-5 but has scored at least two touchdowns in every game except its 9-7 victory over Miami of Florida.

LOW PRESSURE BUT . . .

Santa Clara Broncos A Pleasant Surprise

SANTA CLARA (AP) — With a host of newcomers and four freshman starters, including the quarterback, Santa Clara Coach Pat Malley wasn't expecting a big football year last September.

Now he says:

"This team has been the most pleasant surprise of my life as far as coaching goes."

The Broncos, once a big time power, resumed football on a low pressure basis in 1959 and currently boast a 6-2 record. Last Saturday they upset University of the Pacific, a school with a losing record but nevertheless one that has major status.

Halfback Bobby Miranda, a 202-pound junior, was named the back-of-the-week for his performance in that 14-6 victory as the production included a 54-yard touchdown run.

Santa Clara enjoys an open date this week and then finishes the season against Arizona State College of Flagstaff, one of the nationally ranked small schools.

When star quarterback Ron Calcagno graduated last June, Malley figured to have troubles finding a replacement for this year.

He simply turned to another Calcagno and freshman brother Ray has been at the helm since early in the season for the independent grid squad.

The Calcagno brothers, incidentally, hail from St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco where Malley was head coach until taking the Santa Clara job when the school decided to field a team again six years ago.

Anchoring the line is junior Butch Pastorini, a 200-pounder from Sonora, Calif. He played the entire UOP game on defense and most of the offense minutes as a guard.

"That was our best victory since we started football again in 1959," says Malley

There are no plans for Santa Clara returning to big time football, and the school has decreed the team can't play teams outside California.

Still Malley, who was named "Northern California Coach of the year" in 1963, should have another fine little club in 1965 after this year's surprise.

"There are only four seniors on our football team," he points out.

49ers Work Out In Rain; Toughen Up For Packers

REDWOOD CITY (UPI) — The San Francisco 49ers worked out in the rain yesterday in preparation for Sunday's game against the Green Bay Packers at Kezar.

Coach Jack Christiansen said "we don't plan any extensive changes for the Packers. We'll play them pretty much as we did in Milwaukee."

The 49ers turned in a solid effort at Green Bay though they lost 24-14. Jim Taylor's great 133-yard performance was the difference.

Christiansen also indicated he liked the looks of halfback Rudy Johnson and would "probably" activate him in a day or two. Johnson was signed from the New York Jets taxi squad.

Sunday's 49er-Green Bay game will be part of a national television double header. Game time has been moved up to 1:05 instead of the usual 1:30.

Hornets' Dick Otis Snares Marin Prep Of Week Title

Dick Otis, a hard-running tailback who still has another year to play football for the Novato High School Hornets, boomed into the spotlight as Prep of the Week.

His selection by the Independent-Journal sports staff was based on his play in the Novato 12-6 triumph over Redwood last Saturday. In that game, he gained 132 yards rushing and scored one of the two Novato touchdowns. His TD came on a 15-yard scamper.

His performance pushed him to the top of the Marin Athletic League individual rushing standings, giving him a total of 504 yards. In the Redwood game, Dick carried the ball in half of the Hornets' rushing plays from scrimmage, 21 out of 42.

Otis' coach, Marlin Olson, feels his tailback has tremendous balance, making him hard to knock off his feet. "He can give the fakes or run right through you," says Olsen.

Standing 6-1 and weighing 170 pounds, Otis has consistently been one of the top runners in the league all season. He has the ability to pick up his blocking very good once he breaks through a hole, says Olsen. And Otis' fine-blocking line has given him holes many times this season.

"He's not real fast," says Olsen, "but he runs flat-footed with his legs about 10 or 12 inches apart, making it very difficult for tacklers to bring him down."

He has already established two school records since Novato came into the Marin Athletic League. He has scored nine touchdowns and has gained 755 yards in 133 carries, both being the best individual performances since Olsen has been around Novato. In addition, he has caught 6 passes for 71 yards. He's also a very capable passer, throwing left handed.

Besides his football talent, he's a shot putter on the track team and played last year on the junior varsity basketball team, winning the most valuable player award. A junior this year, he still has two years of track and basketball, and one more season of football.

Some Cold Weather Advice; Draft-Proof Boat, Selves

This is the proverbial time of year when the "frost is on the pumpkin," and other miscellaneous spots—like, for instance, the foredeck of many an outboard boat. By the time everyone is up, had breakfast and hooked up the rig—or gone aboard if she is docked—it has usually melted, and boating goes on much like it does in June. Winter boating is mighty enjoyable, if it isn't storming. The water is bluer and distances are brought up remarkably close; the summer trade winds are no more.

It can be nippy, of course. Wind can draw warmth out of clothing that would normally keep a man comfortable even on exceptionally cold days.

So if you would make your craft—if it's a fairly open one—surprisingly comfortable, draft-proof it and its occupants.

Buy top and side curtains from your boat's manufacturer through your dealer. These items are almost always available as optional equipment, especially on all the newer and the more popular makes. If you possess a real oldie, there are ways and means of converting and adapting. It may look a trifle makeshift—but what price comfort?

For the boat owner wanting almost complete wind protection, there are vinyl or canvas camper tops. The cockpit will then be completely enclosed from transome to windshield—snug as a bug.

How many persons usually go in your craft? Do you all sit in the front seat? Then you just leave the cockpit cover in place behind the seat. It's considerably amazing how much draft this will eliminate. And how do you start your motor? If it's not electric you'll have a bit of a problem; but those without that type of starter are much in the minority these days.

Buy your boating clothes with and eagle-eye to the wonderful wind-proof materials, being particularly sure of a snug fit around ankles, waist, neck and your wrists. A camper's duffle bag pulled up over uncomfortably chilly feet and legs is a grand warmer-upper.

QUESTION: There is so much written and implied on the subject of wakes from boating. What type of craft produces the deadliest wake, and how should the small-boat operator avoid them—or handle them to best advantage? I have to confess, I've had one experience I wouldn't want to repeat, with a large commercial fishing boat.

"All wet" K. B., Novato

ANSWER: It's up to the boater to study the speed of a fishing craft, liner or freighter that's underway outside a harbor. Give it ample berth if you see it is moving right along. But if you encounter one in a harbor or close to shore, there shouldn't be too much concern. Here a large ship will necessarily reduce speed for safety's sake.

The real wing-dinger wave-making artists are those short, studdy little crafts. Deep-drafted, such as tugs and loaded barges and some of the commercial fishing boats. Their bulky hulls plow up a field of waves much larger than any produced by a ship. With the knowledge, however, that they are responsible for damage caused by their wakes, they "pussy-foot" in confined waters.

On rare occasions — as with any other set of rules—you'll find one proceeding too fast. Alarm won't help, but caution and right handling will. Notice the waves. Are they more rounded in their crests and troughs in relation to the size of your boat? If so, you may be in for some exciting roller-coaster action; but your craft will be able to take all of this just great—if you keep HEADED INTO THEM.

Naval craft are the speedsters among the "big guys." They have the horse power and the hull for it. Unless you saw one, you couldn't believe the wake they can drag. But at full speed they must have the sea's wide open space. So you can be sure, only in some exceptionally rare test or dire emergency will the small boater be apt to encounter this situation.

But just in case: If you ever see one coming your way under full power, pull away. Sco-ooooo-ttt! Far as possible until you calculate the wake is about to catch you. At that moment, turn into it. Oh, it'll be big. Something you'll talk about a long time.

Kelso Wins International Racing Classic

THE STRETCH—Kelso leads Gun Bow coming out of the stretch turn to go on to win yesterday's 13th running of the Washington D.C. International at Laurel, Md. Trailing (from left) are Aniline, Biscayne, Belle, Sicambre, Primordial, Ryu Forel and Veronese. (AP Wirephoto)

Gun Bow Completes U.S. 1-2 Sweep By Big Margin

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — Kelso, king of the hill for an unprecedented four years, refuses to come down.

His ground seemed shaky in yesterday's $150,000 Washington D.C. International horse race.

The old boy sent his would-be successor, Gun Bow, whose rider weakly cried foul, reeling by 4½ lengths. Six foreign invaders were lost in the shuffle in the battle for the pinnacle.

Kelso's 7-year-old legs traveled the fastest time ever on an American track for 1½ miles, 2:23 4-5.

The glorious triumph after three previous seconds in the same race gave pause to his owner and trainer who had been thinking of issuing an abdication decree in behalf of Kelso.

Mrs. Richard C. duPont, the owner, between crying and joy said, "I can't say anything definite about whether he'll run again."

"It shook up everything," said trainer Carl Hanford. "He's in such wonderful condition, it would be a shame to stop him now."

There is no reason to rush Kelso into retirement as long as he shows the life he did in the International. As a gelding, he has no future of producing children and racing for money is his last claim to fame.

He already has picked up $1,893,362, more than any racing thoroughbred in history. He is the first to be voted best U. S. horse more than once with a fifth in the offing.

The 13th International was a two-horse Yankee race from the start and the closest at the finish was —13½ lengths behind Kelso — was Russia's Anilin.

Dragging in behind were Ireland's Biscayne, France's Belle Sicambre, Venezuela's Primordial, Italy's Veronese and Japan's Ryu Forel.

Acclamation of Kelso by the crowd of 37,800 was delayed for 20 minutes while the stewards considered a foul filed by Walter Blum, jockey on Gun Bow. The stewards didn't see it.

Blum admitted that Kelso didn't make physical contact with Gun Bow as the two squared away three-sixteenths of a mile from the finish.

"But I felt that he was intimidating me and made me change my course," said Blum. "If there was any possibility of a reversal of the decision, I owed it to the owners and the racing public to have the stewards look at the film."

After looking at them also, trainer Eddie Neloy of Gun Bow said "We feel that the stewards were justified in leaving the result as it was."

He added that Gun Bow, who won eight major races this year, probably will start no more this year.

The International was the showdown between Gun Bow and Kelso. They had met four times before this year and each finished ahead twice.

Gun Bow broke on top in the International and was leading by as much as four lengths over Kelso after a half mile. But by the end of a mile, Kelso had his head in front and when they went into the straight stretch run for home he just kept opening up daylight.

The word "greatest" abounded. "It will be a long time before you see another like him," said the losing Blum.

Believers in him with their money collected $4.40, $2.40 and $2.40 for a $2 bet. Gun Bow returned his faithful $2.60 and $2.20 while Anilin was worth $3.80 for third.

WARRIORS BOW TO CELTICS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Red Auerbach's approach to his Boston Celtics and the Celtics' approach to the National Basketball Association can be summed up in a word — totalitarian.

"I'm a dictator," Coach Auerbach has told his players. "It's up to you to keep me happy."

The Celtics, presumably, are keeping Red happy. They have played 11 games thus far this season and have won them all, including a 110-84 romp over San Francisco last night. They are four short of the NBA's record getaway of 15 straight victories set by the old Washington Capitols in 1948.

Auerbach had said he would reserve judgment on the 1964 Celtic squad, which includes four newcomers as well as last season's championship nucleus, until after its first meeting with the Western Division champion Warriors and Wilt Chamberlain.

The only thing the Warriors showed Auerbach was Chamberlain's new beard and, if it didn't get in the big fellow's way, Bill Russell, Boston's goateed gremlin, did. Russell held Wilt to 24 points, 10 under his current average, and San Francisco was stopped short of the 100-point mark for the seventh time in its last eight encounters with the perennial NBA kings.

The Warriors broke 100 once while dropping four of five to the Celtics in last season's championship playoffs after failing to reach the mark in their last two regular season meetings.

In Wednesday night's other games, Hal Greer and Chet Walker led a late Philadelphia breakthrough that carried the 76ers past Baltimore 123-114 while Cincinnati's Wayne Embry capped his 13-point closing burst with a basket in the last half-minute that sunk St. Louis 118-116.

While Russell and the tenacious Celtic defense kept Chamberlain in check, Willie Naulls came off the bench twice and keyed Boston rallies. Naulls contributed 18 points as the Celtics pulled away from a 44-39 halftime edge and then sewed it up with a 40-point final quarter. Larry Siegfried, high scorer for Boston with 20 points, fired 17 in the last 12 minutes.

Greer, who led all scorers in the 76ers-Bullets game with 34 points, scored seven in the last five minutes and Walker added four as Philadelphia broke loose from a 102-102 deadlock. Baltimore had fought back from an early 14-point deficit.

Walt Bellamy and Gus Johnson scored 28 and 26 points, respectively, for the Bullets.

Embry's winning basket, with 25 seconds left, ended Cincinnati's three-game losing streak and St. Louis' four-game winning string. The Royals, playing without Oscar Robertson, out with an eye injury, for the fourth straight game, got 24 points from Embry and 26 from Jerry Lucas. Embry's late fireworks held off a St. Louis rally led by Bob Pettit.

The Hawks trailed 91-80 going into the last quarter. Pettit, who scored 32 points and needs only seven more to become the first 20,000-point man in NBA history, had a final shot blocked by Lucas just before the buzzer.

Baker Suit Due For Settlement

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $300,000 damage suit against ex-Senate aide Bobby Baker will probably be settled out of court next week, according to Washington attorney David Carliner.

Capitol's suit charges that Baker used his influence on Capitol Hill to have a lucrative contract taken away from the firm.

Camp Fire Reorganizes Units

The Camp Fire Girls organization has reorganized its national structure, reducing the number of regions across the country from 10 to seven.

The move came as the Camp Fire Girls annual National Council meeting wound up its two-day session in the Lone Star state.

A spokesman for the national youth organization said the action was taken essentially to increase administrative efficiency, provide closer field service to councils and to strengthen sparsely organized regions.

Under the reorganization these regions would be consolidated with others without any loss of council representation in the 50 states.

RESULTS 'TOO LOW'

Tempest Brews Over Eye Tests

By ALAN CUNNINGHAM

A small tempest seems to be brewing over the results of a recent study in Marin schools to find how many youngsters have a rare but much-discussed eye disorder called "amblyopia."

The controversy has been launched by the Marin County Optometric Society, which recently sent out a memorandum to school nurses, administrators, health officials and eye examiners.

In the unsigned memo, the society compains that results of the study were too low, and concludes that visual screening methods are inadequate, mainly because "professional eye examiners" — opthalmologists and optometrists — were not used to carry out the tests.

Referred to is the report of a special committee of the Marin County Health Department. Using figures collected during routine screening by school nurses during the last school year, the committee found that, of 6,553 children, 24 have the disorder. Two of these were listed as "possible" cases only.

In its memo, the optometrists' society complains that this figure—which comes to .37 of 1 per cent—is much lower than reported in other studies. It cites a current Contra Costa County study showing an incidence of 1.1 per cent.

Dr. E. Muriel Bennett, who headed the special health department committee, said her group will meet soon to "review its statistics." But she disagreed with the optometrists' view that the figures were misleading.

Contending that the school nurses "always have done, and still do, an adequate job," she said there are "probably reasons why" the Marin statistics are lower.

"Other factors," including the higher average level of education of parents in the county, cause many youngsters to get vision screening before they enter school, she said, so that many cases of amblyopia are caught sooner.

"This was not a research study," she explained. "We just wanted to find out how things were in the county, and I think we did it."

She noted that county eye specialists were kept informed of the committee's work as it went on, and each of the 24 cases found by the screening process was referred to an eye consultant.

"Amblyopia" is a condition, often in one eye only, in which vision remains poor even though there is no disease and all steps are taken to correct known defects.

Sometimes called a "diagnostic wastebasket" covering all unexplained cases of reduced vision, the term may cover several eye defects.

These defects are often said to be most easily treatable if found by age five or six.

Theft From Auto

Someone stole two air cleaners, two valve covers and a distributor shaft from a 1962 Corvette sitting on the Ames Ford used car lot at 619 Francisco Boulevard Tuesday, used car manager John J. Donovan told police.

Jury Says Ballot Bags Unattended

Bags containing election ballots were not under constant supervision and safeguard on election night, a grand jury committee chairman declared today.

Clifford S. Lund, chairman of the county offices committee of the Marin County Grand Jury, said he personally saw about 50 bags lying in the courthouse parking lot about 1 a.m. Lund said some bags were still in the parking lot at 6:30 a.m.

"Our main concern is that there were bags out there largely unattended," Lund said.

Lund and his grand jury committee met with County Clerk George H. Gnoss and election superintendent John Musser Monday at the Civic Center. The county clerk explained how the ballots are counted and tallied at the precincts, then placed in the bags and delivered to the county courthouse.

Lund said the county clerk has agreed to deliver to the grand jury a letter outlining "procedures on how to safeguard ballots in the future."

When the letter is delivered, the grand jury committee plans to talk again with Gnoss. However, no other witnesses are expected to be called to testify on the safeguarding of ballots and ballot bags, Lund said.

The county clerk has denied that ballot bags were "left unattended."

Sausalito School Tax Election Set

Sausalito School District residents will vote on fixing the district's maximum operating tax rate next April along with electing trustees.

The district board decided Tuesday night to combine a tax rate election with the trustee election, after Supt. Marcus F. Davis pointed out the present $2.25 maximum expires with this fiscal year. If no action were taken, the rate would revert next year to 90 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Trustees did not discuss whether the figure should be fixed again at $2.25 or changed up or down, Davis reported.

The operating tax rate maximum, for which voter approval is necessary, does not include all taxes of the district. State law provides for some two dozen over-ride taxes which may be stacked on top of it without and election. Also, it does not include bond redemption.

This year, Sausalito district is levying $2.04 operating tax, 19 cents in other general fund taxes which are "over-ride" taxes, and four cents for bond redemption, for a total of $2.27 per $100 assessed valuation.

Sausalito board members reaffirmed a recommendation that two, instead of three, unified school districts be created in the Tamalpais High School District area, and directed that a letter urging this be considered be sent to the Marin County Committee on School District Organization.

The two-district plan would split the Tam District area into north and south halves.

Trustees accepted the resignation of Mrs. Alice Evans of Sausalito, cafeteria supervisor at Central School for about 15 years, because of ill health.

The board asked Davis to look into possible establishment of a central kitchen, possibly at Richardson Bay School, and to have meals transported to other schools by truck. There are cafeterias now at all schools save Bayside. Davis will report back Nov. 23.

The board approved an interdistrict agreement to permit a Marin City seventh grader at Richardson Bay to attend Mill Valley school. It also established a curriculum committee of teachers to study grouping of children by grades and abilities in ungraded programs.

Classrooms Purchase Gaining

In a special meeting Tuesday night, Fairfax School District trustees agreed to proceed with purchase as quickly as possible of five portable classrooms.

The purchase, part of a state loan and bonding program approved by voters Nov. 3, will do away with double sessions in Fairfax schools. But the time schedule on purchase is still not definite, Supt. Homer Sisk explained today.

A school district cannot advertise for bids until it has money to cover a purchase. Sisk said it will be about three and one-half months before bonds can be sold.

Two portables will be located at Deer Park School, two at Manor School, and one at Central. Eventually the portables would be placed on a new school site.

Trustees hope to purchase 20.5 acres of the Frieda Smith property on the north side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at the northern limits of Fairfax for a school site. Formal negotiation on this must also wait until money is available, Sisk said.

Price range on portables is from $11,500 to $13,000, Sisk reported.

Trustees learned that the final vote, including absentee ballots, was 2,737 for the $500,000 bonds and 628 against. The vote was 2,580 to 660 in favor of a $500,000 state loan.

Next meeting of the board will be at 7:45 p.m. next Tuesday at Manor School.

Redwoods Park Needed But Save Economy, Too

In two previous editorials, yesterday and the day before, we attempted to make two principal points:

1. A Redwoods National Park in Humboldt and Del Norte counties is necessary, and would be desirable and valuable to California.

2. The acquisition by government of vast forest lands could have absolutely disastrous effects on the tax base and basic economy in Del Norte and Humboldt counties.

Some ultra-conservationists, unfortunately, tend to despise the tax base and economic considerations, ignoring the Fifth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, "Nor shall private property be taken without just compensation."

Equally unfortunate is the closed-mind opposition of some against the Redwoods National Park concept.

The truth is that we need the National Park and we need to protect the tax base and basic economy of the people of Del Norte and Humboldt counties.

The ultimate solution must be to do both.

The first step toward the ultimate solution is to stop negative "either, or" thinking and begin to think in terms of finding a solution other than merely "damn the park" or "damn the economy and tax base."

We would like to suggest to Senator Kuchel, Senator-elect Murphy and Congressman Clausen that, when the National Park Service report and recommendations reach Congress, consideration be given to asking for an authoritative, qualified study of the economic consequences of the Redwoods National Park and how unwanted undesirable consequences can be overcome. (Perhaps the Department of Commerce is the direction in which to look for such a survey.)

Before the government pulls the economic rug out from under Del Norte and Humboldt counties, it must come up with a guaranteed method of providing "just compensation" to all who would otherwise be adversely affected.

Included in any such study must be the question of highway transportation.

Development of the Redwood Highway to adequate standards must be provided for. The Redwood Highway is an economic lifeline for at least six California counties and two Oregon counties.

Any park plan must be coordinated with highway planning so as to provide for an adequate highway without unnecessary destruction of desirable park forests.

We commend our suggestions to Senator Kuchel, Senator-elect Murphy and Congressman Clausen.

And a final word of advice: let not any economic survey be used merely to stall indefinitely any action on the Redwoods National Park proposal.

Waiting too long could be disastrous.

HOW TO THINK STRAIGHT—8 TIPS

1. Think for yourself: If you weigh, examine, and sift the evidence, you will be more likely to find the truth and share it with others.
2. Think before you act;: Even a moment's reflection may have far-reaching consequences for good.
3. Think objectively: Develop the facility to get beyond a narrow, selfish point of view.
4. Think ahead: Cultivate the habit of looking beyond the present.
5. Think hopefully: A hopeful person sees an opportunity in every calamity while a cynic sees a calamity in every opportunity.
6. Think things through: Much fuzzy thinking could be clarified if more persons would think things through and thus avoid making rash or erroneous judgments.
7. Think charitably: A genuine love for others and love of God is the best preparation for clear, unbiased thinking.
8. Get beyond wishful thinking: Discipline yourself to carry your good thoughts into constructive action.

"In his mind a man plans his course, but the Lord directs his steps."
(Proverbs 16:9)

Help me, O Lord, to think and act at all times with faith, hope and love.

'Buy America Act' Is Shown As Good For State Economy

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Some interesting comment on the "Buy America Act," which provides that state government in most cases must buy products manufactured in California or the United States, was given the Assembly Ways and Means Subcommittee on Economic Development when it met this week in San Francisco.

A phase of the act not generally known was given the committee by A. E. Davis, director of the governmental relations department of the California Manufacturers Assn.

THIS WAS to the effect that, on large contracts which might be lost to foreign competition because of cheaper bids, both the federal government and the state government could lose more in taxes than the purchasers would save.

In making a number of points in favor of retaining the "Buy America Act" in the state statutes rather than having the subcommittee recommend A.B. 2424, which would nullify its provisions, Davis pointed out that tax revenue provided by industry and labor should go to buy the products and services created by that industry and labor.

"A GOVERNMENT as a purchaser," he said, "is in the unique position of having a material part of what it pays out flow back in the form of tax revenue, if what it pays out goes to buy a domestic product."

He illustrated the point through the case of a federal contract for 32 million dollars bid by a foreign manufacturer against a larger bid by domestic suppliers.

By rejecting the domestic bid, it was estimated government stood to lose better than a half million in revenue, and much more than that when all other items are taken into consideration.

"IT WAS PRECISELY for the reason of encouraging California industry and protecting California labor that our legislature adopted the state's 'Buy America Act' over 30 years ago," Davis pointed out to the committee.

The act is tied irrevocably to employment in California, a state with a rapidly growing work force. There is urgent necessity of creating more jobs, Davis says, to handle the added population. No country or state, said Davis, deliberately pursues policies that reduce employment and increase unemployment.

Cancellation of the act would do just this.

Passage of the act 30 years ago was one of the reasons industry started booming in California, Davis said.

Synanon Gets A Boost

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The many pros and cons regarding Synanon House make me wonder if we, in a country and county so very blessed, could forget the many lessons of history.

The one lesson which seems most forgotten is that told of a mob scene, stoning a woman because it was written in the law! The words of Christ were not sufficient to open the hearts of the mob. Christ stooped and wrote in the sand, and one by one the stone-throwers went away and the woman was told, "Go, and sin no more."

Have we forgotten that he who falls and tries once more is a better man than he was before? Is this the Golden Rule, or love of neighbor—to so fear a group trying to help each other rise above weak or crippled nature?

Many of us cannot help physically in this effort, but let's not be stumbling blocks due to ignorance or fear.

America is still a land where one is innocent until proven guilty. Let's not set ourselves up as judges but ask our Father in heaven, in the name of His divine Son, Jesus Christ, to bless and heal all men of their infirmities so they may know the peace of Christ and love of God.

Clean, Honorable Campaign Praised

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Comment on the campaign techniques used in the recent Fourth District supervisorial race is in order. The result of the election brings home a principle our late President John F. Kennedy lived and died for: politics can and should be a clean and honorable profession.

The days of voter apathy toward "below the belt" campaigning are on the wane. There is a place in government, at all levels, for honest, hard-working men of high ideals. Congratulations to the voters of the Fourth District who chose one by electing Tom Storer!

Thanks Given For Park Bond Support

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We would like to express our appreciation for your endorsement of Proposition 1 in the recent election.

The overwhelming support received for the Park and Recreation bond issue is certainly due in part to the fine support which your newspaper gave this proposition.

Reason Why Vote Yes On Prop. 14

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial of Friday, Nov. 6, establishes a new low in thinking for editors! You devoted about 12 column inches to ranting about discrimination against minority groups without mentioning the Rumford Act which attempted discrimination against anyone who desired to use his individual judgment in connection with his own property and desires.

I believe that the passage of Proposition 14 in no way indicated a desire on the part of the voters to deal in discrimination toward people because of race or otherwise. The passage of 14 was a giant protest against the action of a group of vote-hungry politicians who attempted to ram down the throats of the public a narrow-minded act aimed at the individual property owner. THAT is the reason I voted yes on 14 and THAT is the reason I will always vote to repeal any law I consider to be contrary to the public interest when such law has been passed by unprincipled, vote-hungry politicians.

The Rumford Act should have been on the ballot in the first place to determine whether the people (majority) wanted it.

I have nothing against any human being who is a decent, law-abiding individual and I believe the great majority of the people who voted "yes" on 14 feel the same way.

Why Johnson Victory Was Overwhelming

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re Mr. H. A. Bolton's letter of Nov. 7. One has only to read letters of this nature to realize why President Johnson's victory was so overwhelming in scope. According to Mr. Bolton, Senator Goldwater made the rules governing the Republican Party. He has apparently forgotten about Mr. Lincoln and the many other moderate Republicans past and present. His statement regarding the lack of interest in the Civil Rights Bill will not stand up to scrutiny. I wonder if he has ever asked a Negro if he was interested in its passage?

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

AFTER ONE of the dreaded buzz-bombs had crashed down on wartime London, a burly Irishman, bloody and battered, was seen staggering down Piccadilly with a doorknob clutched in his hand. "Let me at thim," he kept shouting. "They just blew a foine saloon right out of me hands!"

HOWARD BURGEVIN tells of a day in Pittsburgh when two members of a big orchestra fell to arguing whether audiences really drink in the music or not. To seek a solution, they agreed to stop a duet abruptly in the middle and see what would happen. When the music stopped, there was complete silence in the hall, except for a lady in the third row who was heard exclaiming, "We always fry ours in lard."

ARE YOU ONE of those people who are constantly wringing their hands over the way the world is going? Remember, then, what Ralph Waldo Emerson said to just such a lady three generations ago. "I've decided to accept the universe," she said. Emerson told her, "You'd better!"

Johnson's 'Mandate' Raises Some Questions Of Future

WASHINGTON — Lyndon B. Johnson's tremendous victory does not leave things as clear as many might expect.

It gives the president great flexibility to act—and this is a substantial asset.

But the Johnson mandate is, in part, negative. It sprang, in large measure, from the rejection of Sen. Barry M. Goldwater.

THE ONE-SIDED vote showed clearly where the country did not want to be headed. It did not show clearly where it wanted to be headed because the president himself did not campaign on any clear-cut set of policies. The unacceptable alternatives which Goldwater presented did not make for an enlightening campaign on either side; nor did they encourage a needed analysis of the issues.

This is why the resulting mandate is at once wide and uncertain.

And this is why it is important to raise some questions about what lies ahead.

ABOUT DEALING with the Soviet Union: If we are to learn from the past, we will need to be aware that during the struggle for power within the Kremlin, the Soviet leadership seeks a relaxation of tensions abroad. This is the time for the United States to be a hard bargainer.

Obviously, we should not misread uncertainty within the Kremlin as meaning decreased hostility to the West. But can't we do more? Can't we seize Moscow's stated desires to ease tensions as a prudent opportunity to press for positive action to remove some of the causes of tension?

About the Soviet satellites in Eastern Europe: There is deepening dissatisfaction within the Communist regimes of the captive nations. They are asserting greater independence from Moscow and are turning to the West for wider intellectual and economic ties. But their purpose is to keep their Communist dictatorship clamped upon the people of their countries. Our allegiance is with the captive peoples, not with their regimes. Shouldn't our aid to any of these regimes be directly related to their willingness to relax their tyrannies over their people?

ABOUT SOUTHEAST Asia: As in the Gulf of Tonkin attack on American destroyers, President Johnson has been both firm and patient. But he can't be satisfied with the way things are going in Vietnam. On this point the election mandate seems clear. Johnson and Goldwater have both advocated a must-win objective. This suggests that, if a fuller American commitment is needed to save South Vietnam, including a more direct deployment of U.S. forces, it would have the approval of the American people.

And the security of Malaysia from Indonesian aggression is equally vital to the free world.

Surely the overriding domestic concern of the United States is the ready fulfillment of the equal rights revolution. It is going to be achieved — either by pain or by persuasion. There are three pressing needs:

TO HEAL AS soon as possible the worst wounds which have been inflicted upon the nation by the hate and distrust and fanaticisms directed by Americans against fellow-Americans in this super-heated election. All who cherish the Republic will want to join in this healing process.

To utilize every instrument of leadership, public and private, to further the most faithful, voluntary observance of the spirit and letter of the civil rights law.

To use the full power of the federal government to prevent state and local officials from conspiring with private persons to deny equal rights to all citizens.

NO ONE CAN do as much as the newly elected president to serve these ends. It is his special talent. He has now earned the right and has the responsibility to use that talent to the fullest.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

All U.S. Embassies Are Bugged By Reds

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The State Department has irrefutable evidence that all U.S. embassies and legations in Iron Curtain countries are bugged.

U.S. security officers have uncovered "wired microphone systems" in buildings housing American officials in Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Rumania—in addition to those in Russia and Poland announced by the State Department.

THE EAVESDROPPING devices were installed by local secret police working with the Soviet KGB, which has its own undercover apparatus in all the satellites.

The carefully organized and sweeping nature of the Communists' bugging operations has not been fully revealed to the American people, because State Department authorities fear this would adversely affect the administration's policy of expanding and improving relations with the Soviet bloc.

The pre-election announcement of the Oct. 7 discovery of a number of microphones in the walls of the U.S. embassy under construction in Warsaw was made on direct White House orders. According to insiders, this exception was made for the express purpose of diverting attention from the costly Viet Cong raid on the Bien Hoa jet bomber base in South Vietnam.

SIMILARLY, THE State Department maintained tight silence about the extensive bugging of the Moscow embassy until that was disclosed by this column last May.

Then the department belatedly acknowledged that more than 150 highly sensitive listening devices, some with ranges up to 50 miles, were found in every room in the building.

So far, the Kremlin has flatly rejected U.S. demands for compensation for repairs necessitated by ripping out embassy walls to get rid of the hidden microphones. The Soviets own the building, but the repair costs running into many thousands of dollars are being footed by U.S. taxpayers.

STATE DEPARTMENT authorities were warned about these Communist bugging operations as far back as early 1960, when a Polish KGB officer defected to the West.

He not only disclosed that all U.S. embassies behind the Iron Curtain were bugged, but that the Soviet KGB had "penetrated" U.S. staffs in those countries, particularly members working with codes.

One of these Americans in the Warsaw embassy, the defector revealed, had given the KGB secret information concerning State Department operations.

THIS INDIVIDUAL, who subsequently was permitted to resign quietly, had been recruited as a Russian agent while working in Poznan, Poland, and continued undetected until unmasked by the defector.

The latter also identified two other U.S. embassy employees —one of whom is still in the government.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

Isn't It About Time Twin Cities Began To Become A Single Town?

NOT LONG AGO the Larkspur Fire Department's new truck pulled out of the No. 1 firehouse, headed south, raced down Corte Madera's main street past the Corte Madera Town Hall and Fire Station.

The truck was on its way to a fire in Larkspur. Watching the truck go by raised a question: Isn't it about time to kick awake again the idea of combining these two cities?

The proposal to form one city in the area has been discussed and studied for years, but recently it has lain dormant. Top administrators on both sides favor the idea in principle, but details each time foul things up.

THE BIG PROBLEM, Larkspur City Mgr. Ronald Piper once explained, is the state law itself. The law merely says that two cities may join to become one city.

The law says nothing about which city's ordinances would be in force, or what happens to city employees, or whether there can be an interim period before a new city council takes over.

Recently, for the first time in decades, there was a joining of two cities in California. North Sacramento and Sacramento became one city. But many of the problems here were made small by the size of the City of Sacramento, which, actually, swallowed North Sacramento.

BUT THE COMBINATION of Larkspur and Corte Madera would be no such horse-and-rabbit stew. The cities are about the same size, cover about the same territory. Police departments are about the same size, and each performs about the same functions, except for the question of sewage disposal.

Each city has an older business district which needs to be overhauled and brightened up, and each has new businesses outside the old downtown which are growing and providing the bulk of the sales tax revenue to the city coffers.

Old-timers in the area recall bad blood between Corte Madera and Larkspur ever since the time of Larkspur's incorporation, at near the turn of the century. Larkspur was first to incorporate.

WHEN THE CITY was formed, the boundary was stretched to include "Corte Madera School." That original cause for enmity has no doubt been forgotten, but the distrust lingers on.

There are several differences between the cities. Larkspur pours more money into its fire department operation. Corte Madera has a tougher attitude toward developers on zoning regulations.

But these policies are likely to change for each city during the next few years.

ONE FEAR IS that bigness would breed inefficiency. No city employee would take a cut in pay, and places would have to be found for all the chiefs, so that as few as possible would become Indians.

It might be easier to succumb to Parkinson's Law when squeezing enough money out of the budget for one more new employee is no longer a major problem. But, in fact, the hope would be that efficiency created by allowing greater specialization would reap benefits beyond the costs.

The real incentive which could force cities to combine will probably have to come from the state level, as has been the case with schools. But the state is not pouring such large amounts of money into city operation.

THEREFORE, THE STATE cannot now easily offer a carrot to encourage combination of cities, in the form of funds to help with operating expenses. The local citizens will have to move on their own.

Another argument to hold up action is the hope for someday forming a City and County of Marin, thus wiping out all local city governments. The argument is that any halfway step will delay the final solution.

The Communists used to argue that improving the condition of the poor, or freeing the serfs, would delay the revolution. Things had to get worse before people would be aroused to make them better.

BUT MANY GREAT things have been done a step at a time. The combination of two cities might be a test tube for working out ideas which could be used in the bigger move later.

At the very least, it would be nice if a committee were appointed to come up with a name for the combined city.

There Is Plenty Of Aid For Everyone But Middle-Aged Man

NEW YORK (AP)—Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato:

Everybody gets a helping hand today from the government except middle-aged people.

UNCLE SAM has laws to safeguard children. He has Social Security and welfare programs for the aged and needy. He protects the widow, the manufacturer, the cattle rancher and the farmer.

But America still has one orphan that no government—local, state or federal—is rushing to protect. That is the middle-aged person. He is the Forgotten Man to Congress, his state legislature, and to City Hall.

NO NATIONAL day, week, or month has been declared in his honor. No statues to him have been erected in the parks, and no boulevards—or one-way streets—have been named for him.

The only ones who bother to pay any attention to middle-aged people are doctors, dentists, tax collectors, used car salesmen, and other pocket pluckers.

THERE ARE MORE voices raised in alarm over the plight of the whooping crane than over the plight of the middle-aged man; fewer worry about his future than worry about the fate of the bald eagle.

Of course, if all middle-aged men organized and marched on the nation's capital, they might change their lot. But this is highly unlikely, because it is the nature of the middle-aged man to be disorganized, not organized.

He tends to be solitary, brooding and introverted. He is not given to group action except at lodge meetings.

EXPERIENCE ALSO has made him somewhat suspicious of the benefits one can expect from politicians. Just how, he reasons, could the federal government help a middle-aged man?

No purpose would be achieved by having the government pass a protective tariff for the middle-aged man, as all he manufactures are sad noises. He also is too young for a government dole, and too old to enjoy a government scholarship to Harvard.

The truth is that the government, which has shown it can be all things to almost all people, is stumped when it comes to doing something for the middle-aged man.

Meanwhile, the middle-aged man goes it alone, and wonders if maybe that isn't the best way, after all.

Today is Thursday, Nov. 12, the 317th day of 1964 with 49 to follow.

The moon is at its first quarter. The morning stars are Jupiter, Mars and Venus. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

Princess Grace of Monaco was born on this day in 1929.

On this day in history:

In 1920, Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis was appointed the first commissioner of baseball.

In 1927, Joseph Stalin became the undisputed dictator of the Communist Party in the Soviet Union as Leon Trotsky was expelled.

In 1948, the war crimes Tribunal in Japan sentenced former Premier Tojo and six colleagues to death by hanging.

In 1951, the International Monetary Fund gave Iran an 18-million-dollar loan to meet a financial crisis caused by the loss of oil revenues.

A thought for the day — American poet Robert Frost said: "Most of the change we think we see in life is due to truths being in and out of favor."

Does this play seem natural or right? If so, keep it a secret. Tell the whole world, especially your favorite partner, that you would unhesitatingly play a low spade from dummy at this first trick.

When declarer foolishly played the jack of spades, East won with the king, took the ace of spades and continued with the ten to force out dummy's queen.

South needed more than one heart trick for his game, so he had to try the heart finesse.

TOOK SPADES

East thereupon took the rest of his spades, defeating the contract with one heart and four spades.

At his first inspection of dummy, South should see that he must risk the loss of a heart finesse sooner or later. Hence he can afford to lose three spade tricks—but not four.

South can get what he wants by playing a low spade from dummy at the first trick.

GETS BARGAIN

East gets a bargain, since he can win that first trick with the eight of spades, but then he can get only two other spade tricks. If East plays more spades, he will give two tricks to the dummy.

If East shifts to diamonds at the second trick, South wins with the ace and tries the heart finesse. East can take his king of hearts and a total of three spade tricks, but nothing else.

If East fails to take the spades, South cannot develop a spade trick but can make his game with four clubs, two diamonds and three hearts.

COLLEGE MONEY WOES

Is 10-Year Master Plan Just 'Wishful Thinking'?

(Second of Three Articles)
By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

"Wishful thinking" is a phrase that popped up in discussions of Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy, architect Corwin Booth and citizens' subcommittee leader Fred F. Enemark in describing the Marin Junior College District's 10-year master plan.

Building costs since a 35-cent tax was approved by voters in 1962 have turned out to be about double those projected in the plan. With each new building, the discrepancy between plan and contract cost has increased.

"We had never built a junior college before, and we had never worked in Marin County before," confessed Booth.

"At the time we made the projection, there was extreme pressure to move quickly," said Mrs. Deedy. The early educational specifications from the faculty were not good enough either, she said. "They didn't have time to do a good job."

Does the fact that the original estimate was low insure that the building costs have not been too high?

Trustee Kent O. Seymour said in an interview that the buildings so far approved are "minimum adequate facilities." Architect Booth, and his firm's educational consultant, Wesley F. Hull, in another interview, each wondered whether the buildings have actually been less than adequate.

Eenemark, however, has said that the buildings are too elegant. After looking over a file gathered during the hours his subcommittee spent with the architects, he said he thinks he knows one reason for high costs:

The pressure to hold down costs has been lifted. There is no official with a formal vested interest in saying "no" to any proposal.

Some of the signs of wishful thinking have been pointed out by persons who helped draw up the master plan. For instance, Enemark noted, the plan calls for an 8 per cent factor for building cost increases over the 10 years of construction. That would average out to little more than 1 per cent a year unless all buildings were built in the first two or three years of the development.

The building cost inflation factor was increased, according to Mrs. Deedy, because board members did not realize it would take 18 months before the first building was off the architects' drawing boards.

And yet, although the cost of the first set of buildings, the physical education complex, was already high when it went to bid, the architects and board did not know how high. They received a shock when bids came in far above estimates.

"We didn't realize it costs so much to build in Marin County," Booth said.

Also, the master plan was based on an assumption that the type of building would be similar in structure, and in size per student, to a high school building.

"Now we know that the cost of construction for a junior college is about halfway between that of a high school and that of a state college," Hull said. "This was our first junior college."

What about pressures to hold costs down? Enemark said there were two: The citizens' committee and Trustee George G. Washburn.

Washburn, who voted against the physical education building plan, is now off the board. The citizens' subcommittee, which spent 200 hours of work on the plans, was thanked and sent home.

Enemark, when the physical education plans were presented to the board, arose to object that they looked too expensive. The complaint caused chuckles. He has never again appeared at a board meeting.

Meanwhile, the pressure to increase costs has mounted. Faculty members have had more time to contemplate what they would like for their own departments. In the case of the music-speech-drama building, an outside expert was called in to suggest what equipment the new building should have.

Enemark noted that, aside from the fact the architects' fee increases with the cost of the building, the architect also gains from a beautiful, perhaps prize-winning design. The reputation he wins helps land other such jobs.

The faculty, and the special consultants, have a natural tendency to put in as many features as possible, Enemark contended.

College Business Manager Norman Bird conceded that the administration is ordinarily in an awkward position trying to hold back on costs related to quality of construction, which may mean a saving in maintenance costs later.

Finally, the entire group of experts, including teachers, consultants and architects, present a plan to the board. Enemark said the trustees have been reluctant to tell these experts, whom they picked in the first place, that the plan is wrong.

(In the final article, trustees and district administrators propose new financing plans, new controls on costs.)

'64 Skylark
$2850

Here's an almost new 4-Dr. hardtop Special Skylark that we've used during the year here at the company. It's a car that would sell new for approximately $3500 but we've reduced this car to $2850.

It's never been registered—thus you would be the first owner of record which entitles you to the full General Motors new car guarantee of two years or 24,000 miles.

It's fully equipped with power steering, power brakes, automatic trans., radio, heater, w/w tires, tinted glass, windshield washer, custom trim, back up lights and all the Buick luxury items.

An almost new Buick at a tremendous saving.

The Sanitary Board of the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or bids, should it deem this necessary for the public good, and also the bid of any bidder who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the Sanitary Board.

Protest Filed On Permit For Ponds

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service has filed a protest to the proposed development of two settling ponds on the tidelands south of San Pedro Point.

Basalt Rock Co. of Napa requested a navigational permit for the ponds from the Army Corps of Engineers a month ago. A corps spokesman said today that it will be at least a month before any decision is made.

When a federal or state agency files protest, it usually means the matter must be referred to Washington, D.C., for a decision, the spokesman said.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

No One Wants A Heart Attack, But Many Act As If They Do

VAN DELLEN

No one wants to join the coronary club (composed of members who have survived a heart attack). But almost every day we see people doing silly things that pave the way for membership in this group. Anger, for example, is said to be the emotion most harmful to the heart.

Some persons go out of their way to engage in a quarrel, even though it is none of their business. They argue over any and all trivialities until red in the face. Telemetry has made it possible to obtain electrocardiograms of astronauts in space and athletes in competition. This technic can be used in the same way on these angry people to show them their emotional outbreaks are not going unnoticed by the old ticker.

WE KNOW individuals who work evenings, weekends, and holidays. They let nothing interfere with the job. Many take home a briefcase, so that office problems occupy them at night and interfere with sleep. They carry the full load of their occupation or profession, usually because they cannot delegate authority or responsibility to subordinates.

Vacation? No time for this. Fishing, hunting, golf, or swimming are a waste of time. Some add insult to injury by accepting all invitations to parties, banquets, and meetings. In this way they are robbed of any leisure that might exist.

THIS TYPE of stress is not as shocking to the heart as an outburst of anger or running to catch a train. But, if persistent, it ultimately leaves its mark. There is no letdown even when eating lunch or dinner. Hard work does no harm, provided it is interrupted with periods of rest and relaxation.

Physical examinations also are waste of time to these eager beavers. "So what?" is their answer when it is suggested their blood pressure or cholesterol level may be high or that they are overweight and should reduce.

(Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflets on the coronary club if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

STOMA MEANS OPENING

C. C. writes: My daughter writes that she is being treated for stomatitis. Is this a stomach ailment?

REPLY

No — inflammation of the mouth. The Greek word stoma means opening (mouth). The word stomach comes from the Greek, stomachos. This is confusing because the early Greeks believed the gullet in the neck was the opening to the stomach.

TEETHING PROCESS

Mrs. N. writes: What can be done to comfort a teething baby without spoiling him?

REPLY

Let him suck on a pacifier and give a few love pats from time to time. Babies survive teething but many parents make the mistake of blaming all forms of discomfort on this process when the real cause is a respiratory or other infection.

OVERACTIVE SWEAT GLANDS

Mrs. A. J. writes: Why would a 5-year-old sweat heavily day and night, especially around the head? She has done this since birth and the doctor finds nothing wrong with her.

REPLY

Some persons perspire more than others—even at an early age.

IRRITATED COLON

N. A. writes: Is a spastic colon the same as colitis?

REPLY

No, but any inflammation or irritation of the colon (colitis) may be accompanied by spasm. On the other hand, cramping as a result of spasm often follows dietary indiscretions, too much alcohol, tension, anxiety, and overfatigue.

National Drive Aids Dental X-Ray Safety

By CHARLES SCHAEFFER
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — A national cooperative program has lowered from 75,000 to 25,000 the number of dental X-ray machines spraying or leaking excess radiation.

This is the finding of a comprehensive U.S. Public Health Service survey of dentist-owned X-ray machines. Supervisors of the successful program now want to extend the technique to thousands of machines in doctor's offices.

The voluntary X-ray survey was launched in the wake of an analysis four years ago suggesting that 75 per cent of 100,000 dental machines probably would not meet the government's recommended standards for holding radiation to an absolute minimum. Dentists expose 185 million dental films a year.

The ratio of acceptable to non-conforming machines has been reversed. But there is a sizable number of machines still beaming X-rays in excess of those needed for disease diagnosis, government experts say.

Most of the dentists discovered the state of their equipment with a device developed by the division of radiological health and called Surpak.

The kit includes a film in a sealed envelope, which the dentist slips under the pointer cone of his X-ray machine, exposes it according to instructions, and mails the film to his state or local health agency. If the print of beam exceeds 2.75 inches, the machine does not meet current federal recommendations.

X-rays are invisible. Ordinarily, operators wouldn't be able to detect faults in their equipment without special sensing devices. A new wave of caution has swept radiological circles in recent years in the wake of scientific suggestions that excess X-rays have been known to trigger disease and cancer.

Preliminary examinations of some dental machines several years ago disclosed some startling examples of excess dosage. This was measured two ways—as "air dose" from full-mouth photographs of 14 films and the "skin dose" actually striking the patient's face.

Air-dose exposure ranged from five to 315 roentgens, the latter being an extremely high dose. Skin dose ranged from 1.5 roentgens to over 75. A roentgen is a basic unit of radiation based on the X-ray released by radium.

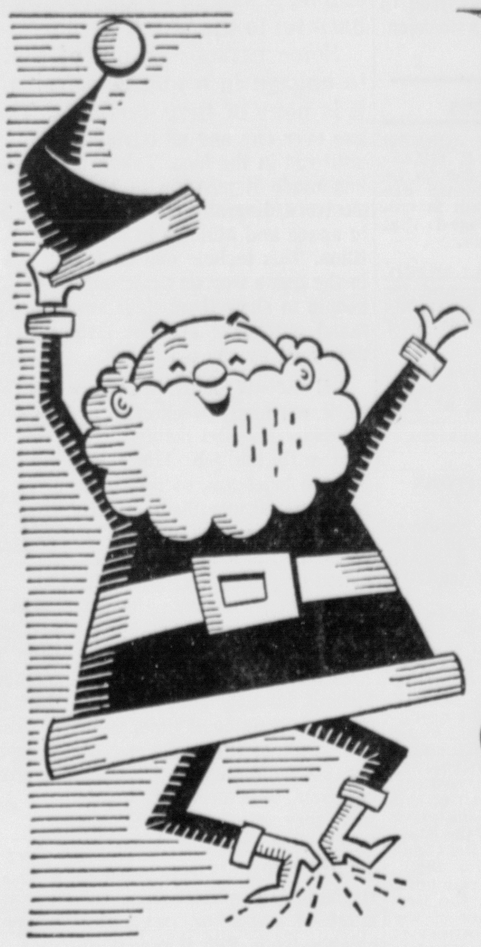
There is a risk to the patient examined by faulty X-rays, but a clean-up is also in the interest of the dentist, who gets repeated exposures. One scientific study showed that over half of a group of 52 dentists developed malignant ulceration of their hands from holding films in their patients' mouths.

Today PHS has distributed more than 58,000 X-ray-detecting Surpaks to 39 states. Of those using the kit, 27 have finished their first survey. Besides measuring the beam at the end of the cone, Surpak can approximate the output, total filtration and the leakage of radiation in the direction of the patient's face. The results are analyzed at a public health service laboratory in Rockville, Md.

There is a more comprehensive way of surveying dental X-ray machines—by on-site inspection. This covers equipment, technique and occupational exposure. Under the program, radiological experts have completed over 10,000 physical surveys. Now, all 50 states have some kind of inspection program.

Public health service will next undertake pilot studies to see if a Surpak-like technique can effectively survey doctors' X-ray equipment.

Field tests are under way in Mississippi and Nevada.



WHY do stores start Christmas before Thanksgiving?

That's a question that's often asked,
and it deserves a sincere answer!

★ Your newspaper appreciates the spirit that prompts many of the objections to early Christmas shopping promotions.

★ However, when the reasons for the urge to "Shop Early" are examined, the most critical agree it's MORE than a problem for stores alone.

★ So we're happy to take this opportunity of presenting some of the problems that confront all stores at holiday time.

★ Every successful store directs its best effort toward perfecting a helpful service to ALL its customers. And since many customers ask stores to make it easier for them to complete their gift shopping before the crowded post-Thanksgiving period, Christmas merchandise and displays are brought forward early to accommodate them.

★ And scarcely a major store in the nation could cope with the store traffic that would be generated if any part of early Christmas shopping was postponed until after Thanksgiving. Even under present circumstances most stores are strained to capacity during the peak of the season, to maintain the kind of store service all shoppers have learned to expect.

★ When you recall the extremely crowded conditions of stores the final two or three weeks before Christmas the problem becomes evident.

★ If no early Christmas shopping were done this condition would be multiplied many fold. (Actually there would not be enough room behind store counters for enough sales people to serve shoppers during this period between Thanksgiving and Christmas.)

★ The same condition exists in regard to the children's visits to Santa Claus. Thousands of children and their parents, look forward to their annual visit with him, and unless he makes an early appearance, many hundreds would be doomed to disappointment simply because it's physically impossible to reach him in a shorter time.

★ Those in the store business know that an extremely large percentage of the Christmas gifts that are selected are items that are in plentiful supply the entire year.

★ If you were to ask the thousands of retail employees—and as a group they represent one of the largest employee groups in Marin County—they would tell you that much of the stress and strain of their Christmas would be relieved if the shopping public would anticipate Christmas shopping throughout the year. Then you'd seldom hear your friends in retailing remark, "I'm simply worn down to my knees by Christmas Eve."

★ Granted that the problem is not a one-sided one, it should be recognized that stores are faced with the problems of convenient service to customers, of maintaining helpful employee relations, of providing a place where those of the public who cannot, or do not, plan ahead may select the traditional gifts for their loved ones and friends.

★ We are sure that if all of our storekeppers could chat with you, personally and informally, that you would be convinced of their sincerity, and that in the true spirit of Christmas, they would not be criticized for their efforts to perform a helpful service to their shopping public.

★ Finally, for all these reasons, and for others which will occur to you, don't you agree that beginning Christmas shopping early makes that task for you easier, faster and a whole lot more pleasurable?

★ So do yourself and your favorite stores a favor . . . start shopping now . . . while selections are at their best . . . while you have plenty of time to compare before choosing . . . while sales personnel can give you the kind of service you prefer.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Best Thing Sunday? Charlie On Radio

By RICK du BROWN

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Today's television advice is to make sure your set is turned off for at least 55 minutes on Sunday so that you can catch one of the memorable broadcasts of the year—on radio.

The program, which airs at 7:05 p.m. (EST) on NBC Radio, is hosted by Edgar Bergen and his top-hatted dummy, Charlie McCarthy, and the content is a collection of comedy highlights with famous stars as they appeared on the old Chase and Sanborn Coffee Hour in the golden age of the soundbox. The firm has chosen this way to call attention to its 100th anniversary, and if a sponsor ever had a better idea I never heard of it.

Chase and Sanborn has sent out to reviewers and other solid citizens a "not for sale" record of the broadcast, and it is a collector's item, and on the basis of having listened to it twice, and having laughed myself almost to tears—a bit nostalgically — I recommend the program to you wholeheartedly. You will hear, for instance, this exchange between Charlie and the great imbiber, W. C. Fields:

Fields (talking of children): "I can remember when with my own little unsteady legs I toddled from room to room." Charlie: "When was that—last night?" Fields: "Quiet, Wormwood, or I'll whittle you down to a coathanger . . . Tell me, Charles, is it true your father was a gate-leg tabale?" Charlie: "If it is, your father was under it."

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Jimmy Durante, Eddie Fisher and Joey Bishop are guests on Danny Thomas' Dec. 10 NBC-TV special, which has a Hollywood nightclub setting . . . Roberta Shore is expected to bow out as a regular of NBC-TV's "The Virginian" next month.

ABC-TV is reported near to firming up a weekly series, sponsored by Du Pont, in which celebrities would tour their home towns in the United States . . . There also is a revival of talk that Tony Curtis may do a special in which he would tour his native Bronx.

Eduardo Cianelli, Juliet Prowse and Steve Cochran appear on ABC-TV's "Burke's Law" Nov. 25 . . . Nelson Rockefeller will discuss his future Sunday on the same network's "Issues and Answers."

Greek Will Discuss His View Of Cyprus

SOTERIOS BOUPHIDIS
Diplomat to lecture

The lecture - film is on the college "America's Neighbors" series.

Bouphidis has been at the San Francisco consulate for four and one-half years. He has been in diplomatic service since 1938, but resigned during the World War II occupation and was put in a concentration camp by the Italians. When liberated, he worked at the International Red Cross until the end of the war.

He served in Egypt, Switzerland and South Africa and was chief of protocol in Athens before coming to San Francisco.

Hub Planners Agenda Set

Two variances and four subdivisions make up the main agenda for the San Anselmo Planning Commission when it meets at 8 p.m. Monday at city hall.

First item is a public hearing on Harlan Floyd's request for a variance to build a carport ramp at 18 Spruce Avenue.

Following the variance and subdivision items, commissioners are slated to discuss planned Greyhound facilities on Center Boulevard, and a proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance dealing with chimneys.

Contributing Trial Ends In Hung Jury

A hung jury resulted Tuesday in Marin Municipal Court in the trial of four men jointly charged with contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old runaway from a San Francisco school for girls last Oct. 1.

Prosecuting attorney Ernest L. Zunino, deputy district attorney, said today a new trial may be scheduled.

Defendants are Leroy Patrick Grundhauser, 25, of 1533 Fourth Street; his brother, Richard John Grundhauser, 29, of 8 Taylor Street, both San Rafael; Isaac (Ikey) Sanchez, 23, of 38 Shell Road, Mill Valley, and William Switzer, 22, of 20 Canyon Road, San Anselmo.

They allegedly took the girl to a Puerto Suello Hill motel in San Rafael after finding her on a street corner in San Francisco. The girl was placed in Marin County Juvenile Hall and the suspects later arrested.

Jury deliberation lasted nine hours. Defense attorneys were Harold J. Truett and Robert I. Conn, both of San Rafael.
